It is estimated that 20,000 troops deser ted since they left Corinth, mostly from Tennessee, Kentucky and Arkansas regiments. All the regiments from these States as they passed down were closely guarded on both sides by Mississippi and The Killed and Wounded in Alahama troops.

It is believed by the country people that s full of armed soldiers returning from at Fair Oaks, as follows:

Tennessee and Kentucky regiments. Gen. Pope telegraphs from the advance at prisoners who first descried to be exthat priso changed now want to take the outh.
