CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE. ----

The Johnston Will Case. This case, originally tried in 1860, was taken up in the Court of Common Pleas on Monday and still occupies the attention of Judges, jury and attornies. The facts are briefly these: William Johnston, of East Liberty, died in 1860, leaving all his property, valued at $25,000 or $30,000, to the daughter of Mrs. Receause Relieva daughter of Mrs. Rosanna Bolton, a woman with whom he had lived for many years, having separated from his lawful wife. The will was contested by Alexander and Elizabeth T. Dean, (the latter being the only daughter of Mr. Johnston by his lawful wife.) The probate of the will was objected to meet the ground that Johnston was not direction of our esteemed fellow-citizen, wine.) The probate of the will was objected to upon the ground that Johnston was not of sound mind when he executed the F. R. Brunot, Esq., who is now in Washcoercion, and undue influence; that he was laboring under a delusion in relation to his heir at law, and that he was so importuned by others as to be deprived of voluntary action in the premises. The first trial resulted in a verdict for the executors, the plaintiffs. The case, however, turned upon the admissibility of certain evidence tending to show the facts on which the objections to the will were grounded-such as the adulterous inter course of Johnston with Mrs. Bolton, etc.
The court ruled this evidence inadmissable.

but upon presenting the case to the Supreme Court the judgment was reversed, and a new trial awarded. A mass of testimony has been offered on both sides, but it is the jury to-day.

The St. Lawrence Hotel. With all persons visiting foreign countries or strange cities there exists a very intimacies, during a few days or weeks' intercourse abroad, between persons who have met daily at home for years without being more than casual acquaintances.

Away from home we generally find our ens keeping company one with anothe and usually stopping at the same hotel. This is especially the case in Philadelphia visit that place when you will and you find all (or nearly all) the Pittsburghers in that city at the St. Lawrence, in friendly intercourse. This feature of the house makes it particularly attractive to our citizens, who can go there sure of a warm welcome and every attention from the courteous host, W. S. The last legislature passed an act, making some considerable changes in the School Law of the State. The most important may be briefly summed up as follows: 1st—The school month to consist of 22 days. 2d—"The President and Secretary of a School Board can file a certificate of the indebtedness of the collector of the School Tax, in the Prothonatory's office, and the certificates will have the same operation as a jindgment. 3d—The County Superintendent, before entering on his dates, shall swear or affirm that he will perform the duties of his office honestly, impartially, obediently, and according to form the duties of his office honestly, impartially, obediently, and according to law. 4th—Authorizes the trustees of any academy or seminary in this Commonwealth, which received any money or land therefrom for educational purposes, by deed of not less than two thirds of their number, to convey all the real estate, buildings and property and finds of or belonging thereto, to the Board of Directors or their successors, of the common schools of the district. 5th—Requires that the Board of Directors shall publish an annual statement of the amount of moneys received and expended, amount of moneys received and expended and the amount due from collectors, and setting forth all of the financial operations of the district, in not less than ten written or printed handbills, to be put up in the most public place in the district."

Loretto Springs. This delightful summer resort will be opened to the public for the season on the 29th inst., and remain open for visitors until cool weather. It is situated one mile from the village of Loretto, Cambria counfrom the village of Loretto, Cambria county, and four miles from Cresson Station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad—easily accessible by a substantial plank road. The location is a beautiful one, the air bracing and the buildings furnished with every convenience for the guests, being roomy and well ventilated, with baths, swimming cataract, bowling alleys, billiard tables, &c.

The 'table will be well supplied with the choicest delicacies and luxuries in market and the bar stocked with the best wines and liquors. The waters of the springs and the bar stocked with the best wines and liquors. The waters of the springs are famed for their medical properties and much benefit is derived from their use. A good band of music is engaged for the season and the hunter and sportsman can find abundance of game and trout in the vicinity. Indeed, this favored locality combines every attraction to those seeking nes every attraction to those seeking relaxation in summer and is peculiarly suited to invalids. The Philadelphia Inquirer of Monday The Philadelphia Inquirer of Monday has the following paragraph: "A committee of three from Pittsburgh, have been on a visit to the hospitals of this city, to inquire into the condition of wounded members of regiments from the Western part of the State. The committee consisted of Dr. Jonas R. McClintock, Jas. Kelly and Dr. Wm. J. Gillmore. They were afforded every facility by the directors of our institutions, and have returned special thanks to the Superioress of St. Joseph's Hospital, Sister Hillery, and her associates. The committee went from this city to Baltimore."

FINE FRENCH EMBROIDERIES, LACE TRIMMED GOODS,

"OUR MOSES," Jeff. Davis and his Policy. From the Charleston Mercury.

Our cotemporary, the Courier, of yes-Our cotemporary, the Courier, of yesterday, in a long editorial eulogizing President Davis, whom it calls "our Moses!" makes the following assertion:

"Yet we have been reliably informed that men of high official position among us—men of good intentions, but of mistaken and misguided patriotism—are sowing the seeds of discord broadcast in our midst by preaching a crusade against President Davis, and calling for a general convention of the Confederate States to depose him and create a Military Dictator in his place:"

Here it is put forth that there are men of "high official position amongst us" who strengthing a "topurade againsts" who shows the convention of the confederate States to depose him and create a Military Dictator in his place:

"The presching a "topurade against President by greating to the state of the fine broadcast, as in ordinary Pipes, where the drip beneath receives the saliva that insensibly escapes into the stem; hence the pipe news the habecen indulging in a pipe."

When the bowl becomes clogged, or the drip beneath requires cleaning, the pipe may be taken apart by removing the rim. The clay bowl may at any time be re-tored to its original whiteness by burning in the fire, (first drying it thoroughly) or a new bowl may be procured of the dealer:

25. Kead the opinions of those who have tried this pipe:

"From personal experience, we know it to be seen the content of the confederate by the confederate states to depose him and the present requires cleaning, the pipe may be taken and the breath requires cleaning, the pipe may be the dot to nongue decercions or unpleasant effects, as the oil of to-bacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the tongue decleterious or unpleasant effects, as the oil of to-bacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the tongue decleterious or unpleasant effects, as the oil of to-bacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the tongue decleterious or unpleasant effects, as the oil of to-bacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the mouth, and the mouth, and the mouth, and the mouth,

Here it is put forth that there are men of "high official position amongst us" who are preaching a "crusade against President Davis, and calling for a general convention of the Confederate States to depose him and create a military dictator in Decidedly the best pipe in use."—Manayank States his place!" The publication of this assertion, according to the Courier's iogic, will tend more to encourage Yankeedom and damage our cause than anything that has yet been put forth against President Davis. For ourselves we doem it due to truth to say that we never saw the idea suggested "of calling a general convention of the Confederate States to depose Presiof the Confederate States to depose Fresi-dent Davis and create a military dictator in his place, excepting in the above ex-tract from the Courier. The Courier is our author for the grand revolution it dis-loses. We know no other. That President Davis is an incubus or ur cause we do not doubt. Although carefully covered over with the mantle o secresy by Congress, enough has been dis closed by stern realities to show his total incompetency to govern the affairs of the Confederacy. He has lost the confidence of both the army and the people; and, if an election to morrow was to come off for the Presidency, we do not believe that he would get the vote of a single State in the Confederacy. Yet we have seen nowhere any opposition to him advocated or proother than such as the Constitution

Public opinion carried out in Congress, ith the legislative power which Congress I ossesses, as to measures and men, can control the Government, and enforce effi-ciency in the Administration. But this an never be done by those who look upon President Davis as "our Moses!" Co Said to its first stage; that which Constitution as an independent element of lower. It must abandon the idea that s only a secret body for registering the will of the President. It must be the per will of the Freshuenc. It must be the peo-ple standing forth in the light of day— clothed with the whole legislative powe of the government, and with their agent the President, instrumental for their deliv-

But if President Davis is to be treated as "our Moses," we really do not see the use of Congress. The military dictator, the Courier seems to abhor is practically upon us. The sooner Congress is abolisued the better. If the people, through their representatives in Congress, are to exercise no power but at the bidding of the executive, Congress is a non-entity. t is worse ; it is a tool of the executive, by which the Constitution is partially overthrown, and a military dictatorship fur-nished in its stead. Between a dictatorship made in this way and a dictatorship made by the general convention of the onfederate States, we would prefer the latter. It would at least have the authority of the State and the people. It would not be characterized by a base assumption of power on the part of the executive, and
