Ross. Mr. Large offered the following, which was adopted:
That our delegates this day elected to the State Convention be and are hereby instructed to sustain, by their votes in the State Convention, men as candidates for State offices who are in favor of the re peal of the law commuting the tonnage tax, and in favor of the platform of resolutions this day adopted by this Conven tion.

Mr. McClowry offered another resolution, as follows, which was unanimously carried: Resolved, That it is the deliberate opinion of this Convention that the Demo-cratic party of Allegheny should, at an early day in August, nominate a good and true ticket, of honest and incorruptible Democrats, for all the offices to be voted for this fall: and we now instruct our Committee of Correspondence to make out the call for that purpose, and should they fail we authorise the Chairman of this Convention to perform that duty.

After the usual vote of thanks to the officers the Convention adjourned, with three cheers for the Democracy of Allegheny county.

A Member of the Legislature Robbed. On Monday, Mr. Joseph Dellone, of Hanover, York county, of the State Leg-slature, was robbed of a pocket book con npon the Convention the necessity of harmonizing by sinking all differences and uniting in the common cause of Democrative International Control of the latter, of course, will be useless to the thief.
