Railroad-Car Improvements.

A new feature of comfort and luxury has just been introduced by some of the Eastern railroad companies, for day trav-Eastern railroad companies, for day trav-elers, on through trains. It is an improv-ed seat, arranged with broad and heavily cushioned bottoms and backs, with a sim-ple piece of mechanism attached by which the occupant may regulate the inclination for the body, as in a sick chair. Cushiou-ed resting places for the head are also fix-ed to the tops of the backs of these seats. The cars containing them have also im-proved ceiling ventilators and a spacious saloon for ladies.

Absence of Soldiers from their Regiments.

The Government has lately determined The Government has lately determined upon the most stringent measures with re-gard to soldiers' furloughs, and the ab-sence from the army of enlisted volun-teers. A furlough shall not extend be-yond twenty days, unless in cases of sick-ness or disability. It has also been order-ed that all officers of the regulars and vol-unteers. excent those on parole now abunteers, except those on parole, now ab-sent from duty, with leave, will be con-sidered absent without leave, unless found at their posts on June 22d.
