Cambria County. The Democracy of this noble little coun ty met on last Monday and selected a full ticket, composed of the following well known and thoroughly tried Democrats: Senate—R. L. Johnston. Assembly--C. L. Pershing Prothonotary-Jos. McDonald. District Attorney-Phil. S. Noon Coroner-James Shannon. Commissioner-John Campbell.

Auditor-Robert Litzinger. Poor House Director-John Rutledge. The following resolutions were adopted:
Resolved, That the Democracy of Cambria County, now, as heretofore, cherish an unabated affection for the Union of our Futhers, and the Constitution of our counry.

Resolved, That we will cheerfully contribute our mite to the National Treasury—and our sons and brothers to the National army, to vindicate the Constitution and Laws, and to put down rebellion, but are opposed to the expenditure of either blood or treasure. blood or treasure to carry out the extreme views of political Abolitionists. Resolved, That to restore "the Union s it was," to preserve "the Constitution is the aim of every true Democrat, and to this end we are willing to give the Administration all needful support. Resolved. That we are averse to taxation for the purpose of colonization or emancipation of the negroes. Resolved, That the lavish and dishonest expenditure of money calls loudly for a change of rulers, and the restoration of the reins of Government to the hands of more faithful public servants.

Laying a Corner Stone. The Catholic gives the following description of the ceremony of laying the corner stone of a new German Catholic Church in Lawrenceville: On last Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, Lawrenceville, by Very Rev. E. McMa-hon, V. G., assisted by Rev. Messrs, Stj. ment. hon, V. G., assisted by Rev. Messers, Subiel, Gibbs, Kircher, and Reiser. Rev. John Stibiel addressed the congregation in German, and was followed by the Very Rev. Vicar General in an English discourse. The ceremony was witnessed by Trinity, Pittsburgh, and St. Michael's, and St. Peter's, Allegheny. From St. Philomena's they proceeded to Lawrence. rille, where they were met by the society of St. Mary's, Sharpsburgh.

The lot secured for the new church is one of the most eligible in the borough, fronting on Butler street, not far from where this thoroughfare meets the Greensburgh turnpike, and running back to the turnpike. Before long, no doubt, there will be erected on it a fine church, thus when death put an end to his sufferings. adding another place of Catholic worship in the suburbs of our city.

Gottlieb Jacobs, a young man of about eighteen. a shoemaker's apprentice, residing in the Fifth ward, went into the Allegheny river to bathe, on Thursday evening, with several companions. He was unable to swim and got beyond his depth. One of his associates siezed him and endeavored to draw him out, but Jacobs grasped him and so nearly drew him under that to save himself he was obliged to let him go and the young man was drowned. The body was recovered yesterday and an in-dress the state of goods stamp him also in a like manner.

Blackwood's Magazine. Henry Miner, Fifth street, sends us the June number of this foreign periodical containing a number of very readable ar ticles. We do not think the course of thi paper of late is well calculated to increase its circulation in America. The presen number has a letter from a Baltimorean to Capt. Coles, the English builder of iron elad vessels and turrets, denying to Capt. Eriesson the credit of planning the Monitor and intimating that he took the idea from drawings of Capt. Coles' invention in

Firemen Injured.

Last evening, at the fire in Monongahela borough, Capt. Jas. Vick, of the Duquesne, and John Mellwy, one of the hose directors, were injured. The steamer was working at a pressure of about 140 pounds, when the hose, held by the Captain and four or five members, became unmanage-able, and the stream struck him in the stomach, injuring him so that it was necessary to bring him to the city and leave him at the residence of his mother-in-law, or First street. Soon after Mellwy was struck in the mouth by the stream and, though stunned for a time, was not badly hurt.
