ENTIRELY VEGETABLE!

NO ALCOHOLIC PREPARATION!

A PURE TONIC MEDICINE.

DR HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED

GERMAN BITTERS

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Penna.,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE,

Chronic, or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases Arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant imaginings of Evil, and great depression of spirits,

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Billious Fever, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous advanturers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters: which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases, and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHENE YOU?

DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE?

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?

DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL?

DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NER VOUSNESS?

DO WANT ENERGY?

DO YOU WANT TO SLEEP WELL?

DO YOU WANT A BRISK AND VIGOROUS FEELING?

If you do use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

From the Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicine, but, regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially Liver Complaint it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,

Eighth below Coats street, Phila., Dec. 24th.

From the Wife of ALDERMAN WUNDER, Germantown.

GERMANTOWN, June 1, 1861.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—SIR:—It gave me pleasure, two years ago, to give you a certificate, testifying what the German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly cured of all those diseases your medicine professes to cure, viz: Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, disease of the Kidneys, &c. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been constituted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, and in most of the Grocery stores also. If any one should question what I say, let them go to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above diseases.

Respectfully, HANNAH WUNDER.

Main street, above Rittenhouse, Germantown, 6th s.

JUST THE THING FOR THE SOLDIERS.

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtasked and diseased system.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhœa, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared I should have to leave you; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store of Mr. H. B. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhœa was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades, who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a malarious region.

Yours, truly, A. E. ALTEMUS,

TO HORSE OWNERS.—DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivalled by any, in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is, magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also speedily cure Spavin and Ringbone may easily be prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a RADICAL CURE. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable disease mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

DAILY POST.

The Engagement on James' Island, near Charleston, S. C.—Col. Leasure's Official Report.

It is only now, after reading for several days the accounts furnished by the Southern press, that our own papers begin to give us the particulars of the fight at James' Island, on the 16th inst. We have no space for the longthy details given, but substitute the following official report of Col. Leasure, commanding a brigade in the fight:

Official Report of Col. Leasure, Acting Brigadier-General Second Brigade, Stevens' Division.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND BRIGADE,
SECOND DIVISION, N.D.D.S.
JAMES' ISLAND, S. C., June 17, '62.

CAPTAIN: The undersigned respectfully reports that pursuant to orders from Division Headquarters, the 79th N. Y. Vols. and that portion of the 100th regiment, Penna. Vols. not on advanced picket duty, were formed into line, and at 1:20 o'clock, A. M., started for the rendezvous of the brigade at the headquarters of the first brigade, where the remaining regiment, the 46th N. Y. Vols. joined, and the troops toward the enemy's works in good order and the most profound silence. About 4 o'clock, the head of the column, marching by the flank, on a double-quick for the last half mile, arrived opposite the works of the enemy, about a mile in front of them, with an open field, traversed by two hedges, formed by cutting deep ditches on either side of an embankment, six feet in height.

The first brigade, under Colonel Fenton, had meanwhile advanced upon the works, and the fort had opened fire. I now received the order from the Brigadier General Commanding the division, to form the column to support the attack of Col. Fenton. I immediately ordered the regiment on the right—the 79th New York volunteers—into line of battle, and when about two companies on its right had got into line, an urgent message came from Col. Fenton to hasten to its support, and Gen. Stevens gave me the order to advance at a double quick, and the companies then in line started off at that step, which made it extremely difficult for the left to get into line, which, indeed, it never did, until it reached the fort, where the right, or about two companies of the right, under charge of Lieut. Col. Morrison's command, gained a position alongside of, and upon the embankment, the left, having encountered a perfect storm of grape and canister, was obliged to seek shelter either by obliquing to the left under cover of a small ravine, or by dropping among the cotton ridges in front of the fort, which they kept up a steady fire of musketry upon the enemy's gunners.

Immediately following the advance of the 79th New York regiment, the 100th Pennsylvania regiment, under command of Major Leckey, formed while marching at a double quick to support the advance of the 79th New York regiment. The line of battle of the 100th was so formed as to cover with right that portion of the left of the 79th which I saw was not likely to perfect its formation before reaching the breastworks. The 46th New York, Col. Rosa commanding, was formed in like manner to cover the left of the 100th Pennsylvania volunteers, thus forming three lines of battle in echelon. Pending these movements of the 100th Pennsylvania and the 46th New York regiments, I advanced to hasten up the left of the 79th New York, and lead the assault in person.

On arriving at the intrenchment or hedge three hundred yards in front of the fort, I found I could not get my horse over, and dismounting, as did also my Assistant Adjutant General, Lieut. Leasure, we proceeded on foot. At this point, together with the left wing of the 79th New York, we entered the range of a perfect storm of grape, canister, nails, broken glass, and pieces of chains, fired from three very large pieces in the fort, which completely swept every foot of ground within the range, and either cut the men down or drove them to the shelter of the ravine on the left.

I now turned to look after and lead up the 100th Pennsylvania regiment, and found its center entering the fatal line of fire which completely cut it in two; and the right, under Major Lecky, obliqued to the right, and advanced to the support of the right of the 79th, N. Y.; and many of men reached the foot of the embankment, and some succeeded in mounting it with the few brave men of the 79th who were there, with a portion of the 8th Michigan. It was here that Lieut. Col. Morrison was wounded, and many of the 79th either killed or wounded, as were some of the 100th Pennsylvania. The principal casualties to the 79th, N. Y. occurred at this point from the enemy's musketry; while the principal casualties to the 100th Pennsylvania occurred during the few minutes that the center of the regiment was under the fire of the guns of the fort, throwing every conceivable kind of missile, and that portion of the left which remained with a portion of the left of the 79th New York, under partial cover of the ravine before spoken of.

The 100th Pennsylvania Volunteers went into battle a fragmentary command. Three hundred and odd privates with the necessary officers were on the advanced picket posts not more than fifty of whom could rejoin before we went into battle. The previous morning report, as shown by Major Leckey's report, verified by the official report, shows 683 privates present for duty. This would leave 283 privates to go to battle, added to which the fragmentary portions of companies that were able to join from the pickets, amounting to not more than 50 men, would make the whole number of that command in battle not more than 400 men with the necessary complement of officers, and of these 130 men who joined from pickets, three companies did not arrive in time to join their regiment till it was under the thickest of the fire, while they joined on the left, and suffered severely. It was of these companies that Lieut. Morrow was mortally, and Lieuts. Blair and Gilliland seriously wounded.

During the formation of the column of attack one mile from the fort, the 46th N. Y. Volunteers, by order of General Stevens, had proceeded to the left along the road leading toward Secessionville, to form, if possible, a junction with General Wright's troops on that side; but on my plan of advance being represented by my Assistant Adjutant-General the General directed that the regiment should be recalled and support the 100th Pennsylvania regiment. This caused some delay, which was no disadvantage, under the circumstances, as it enabled that corps to form a good line of battle, which it did, and marched steadily to the front, until ordered to halt and remain in reserve. This regiment afterward advanced and took its position in the brigade, when it was rallied at the hedge 300 yards in from of the fort.

As soon as the advance had been checked, it was found impracticable for the few troops on the embankment to take the fort. Capt. Stevens, as I am informed, ordered them to fall back and let the artillery play upon the works, which was accordingly done in very good order. Meantime about two companies of the 100th regiment Pennsylvania volunteers had rallied to their colors at the hedge, 300 yards in front of the fort, and on these, with the assistance of Lieut Leasure, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieut. Justice, Acting Post and Division Quartermaster, I soon succeeded in rallying the whole of my command, and formed in regular order for attack where we lay, till orders came to fall back to the hedge in the rear, which we did in good order, bringing off our wounded, but leaving our dead.

During the battle two of my mounted orderlies were wounded, and one had his horse shot under him. I may be permitted to report further, that at the time I arrived in front of the hedge near the fort, I saw nothing of any part of the supporting regiments of the 1st Brigade between the advancing Highlanders and the fort, and only a portion of the 8th Michigan, who led the attack in front of the fort, that regiment having already been more than decimated by the murderous fire through which we all had to pass. After I had formed my command behind the hedge ready to move again to the attack, I rode down to the troops lying back half a mile in reserve behind a hedge where I had myself rallied not half an hour before, and begged them for God's sake to come up to the front and support me in a charge, and was very coolly told that those troops did not belong to my division, and could not either obey my orders or General Stevens's. Of course, this was a very distant support; and I did not feel at liberty to take the responsibility of acting without the order of Gen. Stevens.

The troops under my command behaved with much intrepidity and coolness; and did not shrink from exposing themselves, as the list of casualities will show; and did not at any time evince any tendency to panic, though to maintain a position for two and a half hours under a constant stream of fire was an affair calculated to try the disposition of soldiers pretty severely.

Accompanying this report please find the reports of the several regimental Commanders, together with a list of their casualities.

I must return to the officers of the several regiments my thanks for their steadiness and coolness, and for their prompt obedience to my orders. Lieut S. George Leasure, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieut. Jefferson Justice, Quartermaster of the 100th Regiment P. V., deserve my marked approbation for most effective assistance, and for setting an example of coolness and disregard of personal danger, that aided materially in preserving coolness and intrepidity throughout the command. All of which is respectfully reported.

DANIEL LEASURE,
Col. Commanding Brigade.

TO THE PUBLIC.

ESPECIALLY the ignorant and falsely Modest of all denominations, treat secret and delicate disorders, self-abuse and diseases or imaginations common and incident to youths of both sexes, and adults, single or married. Because DR. BRANSTRUP publishes the fact of his doing so, the ignorant and falsely modest are dreadfully shocked, and think it a great sin very immoral and for contamination and corruption among their wives, promising sons and daughters. Their family physician should be cautious to keep them in ignorance that they do the same as Dr. BRANSTRUP, (except publishing) lest a lucrative practice might be lost to them among stupid, falsely modest and presumptuous families, born and raised in ignorance, rising up as mushrooms and who compare society, intelligence, sense, &c., to dollars and cents, mysteriously, meanly, craftily, etc. It is to publicity, however, that numerous parents and guardians are thankful that their sons, daughters and wards, previously feeble sickly and of delicate condition and appearance have been restored to health and vigor by DR. BRANSTRUP, besides many before and after marriage through him have been saved much suffering, anxiety, mortification, &c. Spermatorrhœa or nocturnal emmission, are completely cured in a very short space of time by his new remedies, which are peculiarly his own. They are compounds from the Vegetable Kingdom, having seen the failure of the Mercurial treatment, he has abandoned it and substituted the vegitable. Female diseases are treated with marked success—having had over forty years (40) experience in their treatment in hospitals of both the Old World and in the United States, leads him to say—to all with a fair trial, health and happiness will again bloom upon the now pallid cheek. Ridge no longer with monstrous hydrocele, but come and be cured. Consumption and all of its kindred diseases, of which so many annually fill our countries, can now be relieved, providing they attend to it in time. Full particulars can be had of my treatment by procuring a copy of the Medical Adviser, which is given gratis to all that apply. PRIVATE DISEASES—Dr. BROWN'S MEDICAL and SURGICAL Office, No. 50 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Dr. BROWN is an old citizen of Pittsburgh, and has been in Practice for the last twenty-five years. His business has been confined mostly to Private and Surgical Diseases.

CITIZENS AND STRANGER

in need of a medical friend, should not fail to find out the sure place of relief. The Doctor is a regular graduate, and his experience in the treatment of a certain class of diseases is a sure guarantee to the sufferers of obtaining permanent relief by the use of his remedies and following his advice.

DR. BROWN'S REMEDIES never fail to cure the worst form of Venereal Diseases, Impurities and Scrofulous Affections.—Also all diseases arising from a hereditary taint, which manifests itself in the form of tetter psoriasis, and a great many forms of skin diseases, the origin of which the patient is entirely ignorant. To persons so afflicted, Dr. Brown offers hopes of a sure and speedy recovery.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr. Brown's remedies for the alarming trouble brought on often by that solitary habit of sensual gratification, which the young and even minded often give way to, (to their own destruction,) are the only reliable remedies known in the country—they are safe, and make a speedy restoration of health.

RHEUMATISM.

Dr. Brown's remedies never fail to cure this painful disease IN A FEW DAYS—he will warrant a cure. He also treats Piles, Gleet, Gonnorrhœa Stricture, Urethal Discharges, Female Weakness, Monthly Suppressions, Diseases of the Joint, Fistula in Ano, Nervous Affections, Pains in the Back and Kidneys, Irritation of the Bladder, together with all diseases of an impure origin.

A letter describing the symptoms, containing a FEE, directed to DR. BROWN, No. 50 Smithfield St., Pittsburgh, Pa., will be immediately answered. Medicine sent to any address, safely packed and secure from observation.
