At one time in this retrogade movement the reserve force of Gen. Sykes charged on the enemy with the bayonet and drove them back a mile. In this charge the gallant New York Fifth the bayonet and drove them back a mile. In this charge the gallant New York Fifth and Tenth drew forth the plaudits of the army by their steadiness and bravery, in which they however, lost about a hundred of their members. Cheers went up along our whole lines at this gallant repulse which was at three p. m., and the enemy did not renew the attack during the bal-ance of the evening, but turned his col-umns towards the White House.
