Delightful Country Homes. It is now generally conceded that the nost delightful place of residence near our city is the beautiful precinct of Oakland, so admirably adapted for country homes, being easly accessible by passenger rail-way cars and not to far to walk if there is such a disposition. We observe that Lin-den Grove has been laid out in choice sites for country residences and offered for sale. by W. O. Leslie, in lors containing half an acre and apwards, on reasonable terms.—A branch of the East Liberty Passenger Railway runs into the centre of the plot. affording ready means of reaching the ground at all times. To any desirous of securing a quiet home in the country no better opportunity could be presented.

Patrick Kistler, another of the rally. Patrick Kistler, another of the Third Ward boys, has been held to answer a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill on Wm. Williams, a colored Sunford's Troupe. Much has been expressed, previously, we speak of Sanford's new troupe, which made its appearance at Masonic Hall last Monday night. We, in connection with our connection with our connection. neighbors, are slow to recognize true merit, but for once in our lives, we make haste to speak well of Sanford and his party. Nothing that will offend the ear of modesty or chastity is permitted on the boards, and every act meets with unbounded applause. A better troupe, either musically, vocally or comically it would be hard to find, and we commend them to the public during the holidays.

The 84th Pennsylvania, Col. Bowman, and the 110th, Colonel W. D. Lewis have been ordered to recruit. These regiments have been under fire six times, and in four hard fought battles, and most gallantly did they sustain, for bravery and courage, the reputation of the State. They will be succeeded, it is expected, by the 91st, Col. Gregory, and the 99th, Col. Leidy. These two regiments have been stationed at Washington for some months, and the men are delighted to learn that they are to be placed in active service. Col. Bowman, of the 84th, is from Illinois, and a graduate of West Point. He was appointed by Gov. Curtin to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Col. Murray, of Harrisburg. The 84th and 110th Regiments.

Flags for the Pourth. Every body will need flags for the decoration of their houses and grounds on the Fourth and they should bear in mind that the place to get them is a John W. Pittock's, No. 78 Fifth street, the agency of the Pittsburgh Flag Manufacturing Company. He has all sorts and sizes of flags from five inches to fifty feet, and of any desired material. "John" furnishes flags at remarkably low prices, defying all competition. Give him a cail.

Oration by Prof. McCoy. It will be seen by the correspondence published elsewhere that Prof. Amasa Mc-Coy, has, on the solicitation of a number of citizens, consented to deliver in this city on the morning of the 4th, his celebrated address on "The London Times on the Rebellion and the War against the National Constitution." It will, without doubt, attract a large number of the most intelligent part of our communication. gent part of our community.

The Naind Queen. After weeks of preparation Manager Heuderson announces for to-night the spectacular fairy drama of the Naiad FURNITURE & CHAIRS Queen. The scenery, costumes and music have been arranged so as to give the best effects. Mr. Foster plays Sir Rupert and Mrs. Ettie Henderson the Naiad Queen. The piece is an attractive one and will we are sure prove a great success, if produced n the style we anticipate.

Teamsters Captured. Among the teamsters taken prisoners by to write upon, will hold the rebel cavalry near Tunstall's station, on Friday, the 13th ultimo, were Zadock Springer, wagon master, and Jas. Crawford, assistant, both from Uniontown. Henry Smith, another Fayette county boy, of the same department, had left with his team about an hour before those did who were captured, and escaped.

The Orphans' Pic Nic. Our readers should not forget the Orphans' Pic Nic, to be held on the Fourth. They are a ways largely attended and there is every facility for enjoyment. Dinner, realishments and cool beverages will be served on the grounds. The Park is easily reached and those who do not choose to remain the whole day can spend an hour of two very pleasantly.

Monorable Accept July 1st, 1862.

To his Honor the Mayor, and other esteemed citizens of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen.—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your invitation to repeat on the coming Fourth of July, my oration on "The London Times, on the Rebellion and the War against the National Constitution."

With every feeling proper to the occasion, I accept your invitation, gentlemen; and I will be truly glad if it shall be thought, that this effort of nine has resulted in any good to that great National cause, to maintain which Pittsburgh has sent so many thousands of s-ldiers to fight in the field, and sill continues to furnish to thousands of others, the most effective appliances to fight with.

I remain, Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

The address referred to will be delivered on Friday the 4th inst., at 10 o'clock a. m., in Concert Hall, Fifth street.

Feeling the great weight of our responsibility, as members of Congress, we have met in an oparty spirit, nor for any party purpose, but for the purpose of deliberating and consulting together how we may best perform our Congressional duties in the present great and perilous crisis of our country's fate, and we have come to the tollowing conclusions, viz:

1. Resolved, That the Constitution and the Union and laws must be preserved and maintained in all their proper and rightful supremacy, and that the rebellion now in arms against them must be put down, and that it is our duty to vote for all measures necessary and proper to that end.

necessary and proper to that end.

2. Resolved, That the true interests of the country, as well as the dictates of humanity, require that no more war or acts of war should be prosecuted or done than are necessary and proper for the prompt and complete suppression of rebellion.

3. Resolved, That the States are competent and essential parts of the Union, bound together inseparably by the Constitution of the United States; that none of them can cess to said. stitution of the United States; that none of them can cease to exist as such so long as the Constitution survives, and that it is the exclusive sphere and duty of the States to order and direct their own domestic affairs. While the rebellion, therefore, has constitutional relations not annulled the Constitutional relations of the so-called "Seceding States" to the Federal Government, neither has it divest-
