

DAILY POST.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 3.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE.

Exhibition of Mrs. Beall's School. We had the pleasure, on Tuesday evening, of being present at the exhibition of the private school of Mrs. Sarah Beall, on the Ridge street. A large number of the parents and friends of the pupils were in attendance who were greatly gratified at the manifest advancement of the pupils of the school. The exercises consisted of declamations, recitations, dialogues, music and singing. All the little people seemed to enter into the spirit of the occasion, and from oldest to youngest acquitted themselves admirably. It was evident that their teacher had done her duty with perseverance, judgment and taste.

Insubordination in the 115th Regiment.

On Thursday evening last, a difficulty occurred in the 115th Pennsylvania regiment, Col. Robert B. Patterson, which came near being attended with a fatal result. The man had arrived at the Bolton depot of the Northern Central Railway, from Harrisburg, where they had been confined as a guard to five hundred Confederate prisoners captured near Winchester, whether the regiment was on its return. After the troops alighted from the cars at the depot, they were drawn up in line "order arms," when the command was given to "remount knapsacks." All obeyed except an insubordinate private of Company E, Captain A. Ritter.

This man, who had been in the regular army, objected to the order, saying that it was irregular, and positively refused to comply. Upon perceiving this insubordination, Captain Ritter rushed forward, and, after several passes, thrust him in the arm and left breast with his sword, the latter being to the depth of an inch, and at first considered fatal. The injured man was left at the depot, while the regiment proceeded on its way. The soldier is recovering from his wound.

Fires.

At an early hour yesterday morning, a fire broke out in a stable on the corner of Point street and Duquesne way, and before the alarm was given it had made considerable headway. In consequence of the stable was a row of five two-story brick tenements, occupied by some ten families. Miss Mary Martin, Martin, George Free, Martin Adly, John Housinger, Henry Miller, and others, occupied tenements in the row. The houses are all built on leased property, and are insured. The stable was owned by Mr. Ward, drayman, who had three horses, and a carriage. The buildings were completely gutted, and most of the furniture destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is believed to have been the work of an incendiary and desecrated, as it is admirably conducted and one of the best places in the country for securing a thorough education.

Remember the Orphans.

Leaders are reminded of the Orphan's Picnic to take place at the City Park on the 4th. An excellent band of music has been engaged, and the most ample preparations made by the Committee of Managers for an agreeable and pleasant day for all who visit the grounds. All the delicacies of the season will be served up at the refreshment tables at moderate cost.

Oil City Telegraph.

A special dispatch from Franklin says: The extension of the telegraph line from Franklin to Oil City is being vigorously pushed forward. In a week or ten days, our friends the oil dealers, will be able to communicate direct from Pittsburgh to Modern Grove. The proprietor of the line is here giving the matter his personal attention.

New League House.

We refer our readers to the advertisement, in another column, of Henry W. Beaumont & Co., No. 83, Liberty street. The firm are well known to many of our citizens, being formerly of the A. W. Hill House and have, though recently embarking in business, already built up a good trade. They sell all kinds of brandy, wine and gin of the best brands, fancy liquors and cordials and fine Jersey cider, for family or hotel use, furnished in any desired quantity. They will supply hotels, taverns, steamboats and families with the best liquors at moderate rates, - being content with small profits. The firm has a good reputation as a fair-dealing house and will certainly succeed.

The Exhibition at St. Francis.

The annual literary exhibition at this institution, took place at Loreto, Cambria county, conducted by the Franciscan Brothers, and was referred to in our issue of the 27th inst. The exercises consisted of original orations, plays, recitations and songs, pleasantly varied with music, well performed by the string band. The recitations were creditable, indeed, were all the exercises. A beautiful repast, provided by the Brothers for their guests, followed, and the distribution of premiums by Rev. Father Hayden of Bedford, assisted by the pastor of Loreto, who had not a list of the premiums, but it will doubtless be published ere long.

Our Anniversary Day.

Another day of July is about to dawn upon our country, and we are reminded of the citizen band and feel as patriotic as it is possible to be. As a prerequisite to making a good appearance on the glorious to-morrow we would recommend every body that will take our advice to go to Wm. Fleming's, No. 129 Wood street, and get one of his dress hats, which are really the best plus ultra adornment of the head. Mr. Fleming's stock embraces all that can be classified with his line of business. We say again call at Fleming's, No. 129 Wood street.

Reported Capture of Two Hundred Federal Soldiers.

A report, which was very generally believed, was in circulation along the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, near Piedmont, on Monday, to the effect that on Sunday last, Lieut. Col. Downey, of the 3d Maryland regiment, and two hundred soldiers were captured by the rebels. The report of the rebel army came down upon him, surprising and capturing the whole force.

Mistaken in the Person.

The Eastern papers, in sketching the late Lieut. Col. Switzer, of the 62d, speak of him as a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, and a Captain of Dragoons in the regular army. The officer they refer to is Lieut. Col. Switzer, attached to Gen. McClelland's staff.

Catalogue.

We have received the seventh annual catalogue of the Pittsburgh Female College for 1861 and 1862, from which we ascertain that the number of pupils connected with the college is 248, viz: resident graduates, 3; collegiate department, 73; preparatory department, 141; primary department, 6; musical, painting and other departments, 21. The institution is in a very flourishing condition and deservingly so, it is admirably conducted and one of the best places in the country for securing a thorough education.
