The Emperor's Plans.

The following is an extract from a Paris letter, dated June 21, 1862:

"The French people are much excited by the news of the recent repulse of their troops in Mexico. But the old feeling remains. 'En avant Bataillons!' is the cry. Still, as the scheme to elevate Prince Maximillian to the Mexican throne is evidently to prove a failure from the indisposition of the people to submit to another Yturbide, and the rupture of the tripartite swindle by England and Spain, the Emperor, after twisting his moustache, has hit on another expedient and recoups for another deal.

"He offers the following bon-bon to his protege, the Archduke. This is a principality on the Danube, to consist of Bosnia and Herzogivinia, which are very respectable countries, with a good many square miles, lying between the Danube and Dalmatia. They possess some large towns, and will form a solid background to Dalmatia on the Adriatic.

"It is true they are not the property of Louis Napoleon any more than Mexico, and they will have to be forced or stolen from the 'sick man.' The consideration expected in return is the yielding up of Venitia and acquiescence in the designs upon the temporal power of the Pope.

The Great Mormon Emigration.

There appears to be a very large emigration to the Mormon country this season. As many as six thousand wagons started a few days ago to cross the plains. A great part of these emigrants are from England and Scotland. It is expected that they will be three weeks in crossing the plains. Among the acts of Congress recently passed and now a law is that to preclude bigamy in any Territory of the United States. This law comes directly in collision with one of the institutions of Utah, and the enforcement of it will produce some trouble.
