

GOV. ANDREW JOHNSTON'S SPEECH

The Gazette of Saturday publishes some fine extracts from a speech delivered in Nashville, on the 4th of July, by Gov. Johnston. The Gazette, in introducing its extracts, said: "How differently this Tennessee Democrat and patriot talks from that of such of our editors as sympathize with rebellion as the editor of the Pittsburgh Post, and all his kindred."

Democratic State Ticket

AUDITOR GENERAL, ISAAC SLEMKER, Union County. SURVEYOR GENERAL, JAMES P. HARR, Allegheny County.

On this, our nation's birthday, we declare to our foes, who are rebels against the best interests of mankind, that this is my last election to the Capital of the so-called Confederacy, and that the Union shall prevail, and that the peace and external security of each State, must and shall be preserved.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENTS

The Democratic Committee of Correspondents for the county of Allegheny, will meet at the ST. CHARLES HOTEL, in Pittsburgh, on SATURDAY, the 10th day of JULY, A. D. 1862, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 15.

WHO ARE THE ABOLITIONISTS?

There are a few Republican friends of the Post who, judging from communications now before us, do not discriminate between Republicans and Abolitionists. Although the Republican party and Abolitionism is under the control of old Abolitionists and renegade Democrats, there are thousands in this community who can not and do not sympathize with their revolutionary teachings.

We once more reiterate the sentiment that we do not confound Republicans with Abolitionists. If any one believes that Republicanism and Abolitionism are synonymous—that the ideas and purposes of both are one and inseparable, then "let him speak, for him we are offended."

But there can be no occasion for the pernicious doctrines of Lloyd Garrison and Wendell Phillips—who does not endorse the destructive propositions of Charles Sumner, to fear that the Abolitionists are denounced. When we speak of Abolitionists, we talk of men who wish to free the only property of this war is to free the Southern States—men who would sweep down State rights, State and National Constitutions and obliterate State lines—who would punish by law, and with remorseless severity, the Union men and would subvert the South who would subvert the Federal Government if they could, and the rebels in arms, who are endeavoring to overthrow that government.

We look upon Abolitionists as a horde of frenzied fanatics, who ignore and spurn the wholesome, patriotic pride that makes all men prefer and adhere to their own land, and their own race and their own kind, and who pretend to disseminate the feelings, prejudice, call it what you will, that looks upon the negro race as being incapable and inferior to our own. The sentiment that the white man is superior to the negro is as deep-seated in the white man's breast, as firm and as unalterable, as any sentiment that he possesses; as strong as his love for his home, his wife and his children; and with the mass of white men in this idea, we do think the white man's happiness, his advancement, his permanent good, here, at least, on our own free soil, should be the first care of the Government, and that these objects and purposes should not be sacrificed for the sake of all the negroes under the sun.

If any Republican, let him call himself what he will, has embraced the idea that this government, which was made for and by white men, is to be handed over to the African race, and should be henceforth conducted principally for the benefit of black men, then "let him speak, for him we are offended."

Why are not our Republican friends aggrieved when Wendell Phillips, who says he has been a disunionist for sixteen years, is flattered and petted by the Vice President and the majority in Congress? Why are they silent when Phillips declares in the face of the President that the "war means Hunter's proclamation?" Why not reiterate such atrocious outwittings, and purge their party from such pernicious members? Why do the Republicans shall, by any official action, reject these Abolition ideas, and break fellowship with those who utter them; when they shall cry to the President, who denies that the "war means Hunter's proclamation," that hearty support which he deserves, the whole country will rejoice—and no man can offend them by seeming to condescend to the Abolitionists.

We do not wish to offend any man who is not an Abolitionist, or who does not consort with the Abolitionists. We have acted, and will continue to act in concert with all loyal Republicans, in supporting the President in his present course, and in doing all we can to put down the rebellion, without one thought or care as to what becomes of slavery, when ready opinion after the war is over, is ready to deal with it.

FROM GEN. FREEMONT'S ARMY

The following remarks by D. Lewis, M. D., upon the influence of sunshine upon general health, will be read with interest. Exclusion from sunshine is one of the misfortunes of our civilized life. The same cause which makes potatoes canes white and sickly when grown in dark cellars, operates to produce the pale, sickly girls that are reared in our parlors. Expose either to the direct rays of the sun, and they begin to show color, health and strength.

INFLUENCE OF SUN-LIGHT UPON HEALTH

The following remarks by D. Lewis, M. D., upon the influence of sunshine upon general health, will be read with interest. Exclusion from sunshine is one of the misfortunes of our civilized life. The same cause which makes potatoes canes white and sickly when grown in dark cellars, operates to produce the pale, sickly girls that are reared in our parlors. Expose either to the direct rays of the sun, and they begin to show color, health and strength.

REBEL TREATMENT OF PRISONERS

Address of General Pope to the Army of Virginia. A TREATY WITH MEXICO. Arrival of a Prize Brig.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great confidence in the Whig army in their ability to destroy McClellan's army, and that they have previously sent their families away, bringing them back again. Union men were being crowded out of the final capture of the city. The cannon captured during the recent battles were all broken up. The number of the final capture of the city, numbering about twenty-three pieces, were the howitzers and three army rifles. The captured arms were light pieces, and the exception of the rebel army and one English gun, were sent to a foundry to be refitted. A single piece of artillery had been captured, and a single prize was expressed that McClellan had succeeded in getting them all off. The falling back of the rebel army toward Richmond had caused considerable dissatisfaction, as it was given out that McClellan would be attacked in his present position.

VICKSBURG, JULY 14

VICKSBURG, July 14.—Major James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great confidence in the Whig army in their ability to destroy McClellan's army, and that they have previously sent their families away, bringing them back again. Union men were being crowded out of the final capture of the city. The cannon captured during the recent battles were all broken up. The number of the final capture of the city, numbering about twenty-three pieces, were the howitzers and three army rifles. The captured arms were light pieces, and the exception of the rebel army and one English gun, were sent to a foundry to be refitted. A single piece of artillery had been captured, and a single prize was expressed that McClellan had succeeded in getting them all off. The falling back of the rebel army toward Richmond had caused considerable dissatisfaction, as it was given out that McClellan would be attacked in his present position.

VICKSBURG, JULY 14

VICKSBURG, July 14.—Major James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

WASHINGTON, JULY 14

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senators and Representatives from the Border slave States, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their homes in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to Congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee as an adjourned matter.

LOUISVILLE, JULY 14

LOUISVILLE, July 14.—It was the Ninth surrendered at Murfreesboro. The Eleventh Michigan arrived at the camp near Louisville fair ground yesterday noon after an unsuccessful three days chase of Morgan.

MEMPHIS, JULY 14

MEMPHIS, July 14.—A few days ago 1,700 sick and wounded men were taken from Fort Pillow to Rhode Island against the positive orders of General Grant. Hammond. He has sent a Medical Inspector to inquire into all the facts of the matter, and to report to the War Department.

First Edition. Second Edition

THE VERY LATEST TELEGRAPH

Important from Memphis

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great confidence in the Whig army in their ability to destroy McClellan's army, and that they have previously sent their families away, bringing them back again. Union men were being crowded out of the final capture of the city. The cannon captured during the recent battles were all broken up. The number of the final capture of the city, numbering about twenty-three pieces, were the howitzers and three army rifles. The captured arms were light pieces, and the exception of the rebel army and one English gun, were sent to a foundry to be refitted. A single piece of artillery had been captured, and a single prize was expressed that McClellan had succeeded in getting them all off. The falling back of the rebel army toward Richmond had caused considerable dissatisfaction, as it was given out that McClellan would be attacked in his present position.

VICKSBURG, JULY 14

VICKSBURG, July 14.—Major James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

WASHINGTON, JULY 14

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senators and Representatives from the Border slave States, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their homes in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to Congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee as an adjourned matter.

LOUISVILLE, JULY 14

LOUISVILLE, July 14.—It was the Ninth surrendered at Murfreesboro. The Eleventh Michigan arrived at the camp near Louisville fair ground yesterday noon after an unsuccessful three days chase of Morgan.

MEMPHIS, JULY 14

MEMPHIS, July 14.—A few days ago 1,700 sick and wounded men were taken from Fort Pillow to Rhode Island against the positive orders of General Grant. Hammond. He has sent a Medical Inspector to inquire into all the facts of the matter, and to report to the War Department.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great confidence in the Whig army in their ability to destroy McClellan's army, and that they have previously sent their families away, bringing them back again. Union men were being crowded out of the final capture of the city. The cannon captured during the recent battles were all broken up. The number of the final capture of the city, numbering about twenty-three pieces, were the howitzers and three army rifles. The captured arms were light pieces, and the exception of the rebel army and one English gun, were sent to a foundry to be refitted. A single piece of artillery had been captured, and a single prize was expressed that McClellan had succeeded in getting them all off. The falling back of the rebel army toward Richmond had caused considerable dissatisfaction, as it was given out that McClellan would be attacked in his present position.

VICKSBURG, JULY 14

VICKSBURG, July 14.—Major James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

WASHINGTON, JULY 14

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senators and Representatives from the Border slave States, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their homes in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to Congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee as an adjourned matter.

LOUISVILLE, JULY 14

LOUISVILLE, July 14.—It was the Ninth surrendered at Murfreesboro. The Eleventh Michigan arrived at the camp near Louisville fair ground yesterday noon after an unsuccessful three days chase of Morgan.

MEMPHIS, JULY 14

MEMPHIS, July 14.—A few days ago 1,700 sick and wounded men were taken from Fort Pillow to Rhode Island against the positive orders of General Grant. Hammond. He has sent a Medical Inspector to inquire into all the facts of the matter, and to report to the War Department.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great confidence in the Whig army in their ability to destroy McClellan's army, and that they have previously sent their families away, bringing them back again. Union men were being crowded out of the final capture of the city. The cannon captured during the recent battles were all broken up. The number of the final capture of the city, numbering about twenty-three pieces, were the howitzers and three army rifles. The captured arms were light pieces, and the exception of the rebel army and one English gun, were sent to a foundry to be refitted. A single piece of artillery had been captured, and a single prize was expressed that McClellan had succeeded in getting them all off. The falling back of the rebel army toward Richmond had caused considerable dissatisfaction, as it was given out that McClellan would be attacked in his present position.

VICKSBURG, JULY 14

VICKSBURG, July 14.—Major James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

WASHINGTON, JULY 14

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senators and Representatives from the Border slave States, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their homes in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to Congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee as an adjourned matter.

LOUISVILLE, JULY 14

LOUISVILLE, July 14.—It was the Ninth surrendered at Murfreesboro. The Eleventh Michigan arrived at the camp near Louisville fair ground yesterday noon after an unsuccessful three days chase of Morgan.

MEMPHIS, JULY 14

MEMPHIS, July 14.—A few days ago 1,700 sick and wounded men were taken from Fort Pillow to Rhode Island against the positive orders of General Grant. Hammond. He has sent a Medical Inspector to inquire into all the facts of the matter, and to report to the War Department.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great confidence in the Whig army in their ability to destroy McClellan's army, and that they have previously sent their families away, bringing them back again. Union men were being crowded out of the final capture of the city. The cannon captured during the recent battles were all broken up. The number of the final capture of the city, numbering about twenty-three pieces, were the howitzers and three army rifles. The captured arms were light pieces, and the exception of the rebel army and one English gun, were sent to a foundry to be refitted. A single piece of artillery had been captured, and a single prize was expressed that McClellan had succeeded in getting them all off. The falling back of the rebel army toward Richmond had caused considerable dissatisfaction, as it was given out that McClellan would be attacked in his present position.

VICKSBURG, JULY 14

VICKSBURG, July 14.—Major James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

WASHINGTON, JULY 14

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senators and Representatives from the Border slave States, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their homes in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to Congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee as an adjourned matter.

LOUISVILLE, JULY 14

LOUISVILLE, July 14.—It was the Ninth surrendered at Murfreesboro. The Eleventh Michigan arrived at the camp near Louisville fair ground yesterday noon after an unsuccessful three days chase of Morgan.

MEMPHIS, JULY 14

MEMPHIS, July 14.—A few days ago 1,700 sick and wounded men were taken from Fort Pillow to Rhode Island against the positive orders of General Grant. Hammond. He has sent a Medical Inspector to inquire into all the facts of the matter, and to report to the War Department.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great confidence in the Whig army in their ability to destroy McClellan's army, and that they have previously sent their families away, bringing them back again. Union men were being crowded out of the final capture of the city. The cannon captured during the recent battles were all broken up. The number of the final capture of the city, numbering about twenty-three pieces, were the howitzers and three army rifles. The captured arms were light pieces, and the exception of the rebel army and one English gun, were sent to a foundry to be refitted. A single piece of artillery had been captured, and a single prize was expressed that McClellan had succeeded in getting them all off. The falling back of the rebel army toward Richmond had caused considerable dissatisfaction, as it was given out that McClellan would be attacked in his present position.

VICKSBURG, JULY 14

VICKSBURG, July 14.—Major James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

WASHINGTON, JULY 14

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senators and Representatives from the Border slave States, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their homes in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to Congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee as an adjourned matter.

LOUISVILLE, JULY 14

LOUISVILLE, July 14.—It was the Ninth surrendered at Murfreesboro. The Eleventh Michigan arrived at the camp near Louisville fair ground yesterday noon after an unsuccessful three days chase of Morgan.

MEMPHIS, JULY 14

MEMPHIS, July 14.—A few days ago 1,700 sick and wounded men were taken from Fort Pillow to Rhode Island against the positive orders of General Grant. Hammond. He has sent a Medical Inspector to inquire into all the facts of the matter, and to report to the War Department.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great confidence in the Whig army in their ability to destroy McClellan's army, and that they have previously sent their families away, bringing them back again. Union men were being crowded out of the final capture of the city. The cannon captured during the recent battles were all broken up. The number of the final capture of the city, numbering about twenty-three pieces, were the howitzers and three army rifles. The captured arms were light pieces, and the exception of the rebel army and one English gun, were sent to a foundry to be refitted. A single piece of artillery had been captured, and a single prize was expressed that McClellan had succeeded in getting them all off. The falling back of the rebel army toward Richmond had caused considerable dissatisfaction, as it was given out that McClellan would be attacked in his present position.

VICKSBURG, JULY 14

VICKSBURG, July 14.—Major James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator James G. Gilliland, Assistant Quartermaster General of Pennsylvania, has been appointed agent for the State during the campaigns to the spring and summer, and has been with the army, rejoining at Harrisburg. Mr. Gilliland will remain at Harrisburg, and will be in charge of the sick and wounded soldiers from Pennsylvania at this point.

WASHINGTON, JULY 14

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senators and Representatives from the Border slave States, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their homes in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to Congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee as an adjourned matter.

LOUISVILLE, JULY 14

LOUISVILLE, July 14.—It was the Ninth surrendered at Murfreesboro. The Eleventh Michigan arrived at the camp near Louisville fair ground yesterday noon after an unsuccessful three days chase of Morgan.

MEMPHIS, JULY 14

MEMPHIS, July 14.—A few days ago 1,700 sick and wounded men were taken from Fort Pillow to Rhode Island against the positive orders of General Grant. Hammond. He has sent a Medical Inspector to inquire into all the facts of the matter, and to report to the War Department.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

FROM VICKSBURG

Message of President Lincoln on the Emancipation of Slaves. New York, July 14.—The following special dispatch has been received by the Memphis, July 12.—Arkansas refugees completely cut to pieces five hundred Confederates under Col. McClellan, thirty miles east of Batesville, on the 4th of July. The Grenada Evening Appeal, of the 8th, says the Vicksburg canal is progressing, with five thousand negroes working on it, and the Mississippi states that Gen. Butler visited Baton Rouge on Saturday.

MEMPHIS, JULY 12

MEMPHIS, July 12.—The Vicksburg report that the damage to the city by the Whig has been suspended by the rebel Tennessee regiments sent into the Richmond fight three hundred strong, and that the bombardment of the fourth state out down from 700 to 200 effective men. The great