THE SURVEYOR GENERAL. The ingenuity of the Gazette is only • qualled by its abolitionism; it is astonishequalled by its abolitionism; it is assumed ing in both. It goes away up into Union county to find out the political character of the editor of this paper, which it copies followed by an epidemic; and on the other followed by an epidemic; and on the other hand, a perfect immunity from the disease form the Union County Star, and is as hand, a perfect immunity from the disease in July and August affords no guarantee

Sir, I protest against this delay; as an act of justice to myself lask the passage of this resolution. If I am guilty of the offence charged against me I am not worthy to remain a member of this House; if innocent I certainly am entitled to my vindication. I submit the following:

Resolved, That the Judiciary Committee be instructed to report further to the House in the matter of investigation of alleged misconduct of Benjamin Wood, as a representative from the State of New Mr. Bingham, of Ohio, objected as this was out of question of privilege.

The Speaker said he hardly thought this came under that head, and he stated the question for the consent of the House when Mr. Bingham objected to the introduction of the resolution.

Mr. Binglam, from the Judiciary Committee to whom joint resolution further to provide for the compensation of members of Congress was referred, reported the fol-lowing: That till the further order of Con-
