It may be smoked without any deleterious or unpleasant effects, as the oil of to-bacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the tongue does not become furred or coated from in-haling its poisonous properties. The bowl is made of the finest Devonshire clay, and gives to the to-bacco a peculiarly pleasant fragmene. The to-bacco a peculiarly pleasant fragmene. The to-bacco a peculiarly pleasant in ordinary Pipes, because the drip beneath receives the saliva that insensibly escapes into the stem: hence the pipe n-ver becomes offensively rank, and the breath of the smoker doer not proclaim to every one he meets that he has been "indulging in a pipe." When the bowl becomes closged, or the drip beneath requires cleansing, the pipe may be taken apart by removing the rim. The clay bowl may at any time be re tored to its original whiteness by burning in the fire, (if at drying it thoroughly) or a new bowl may he procured of the delet.
