

Second Edition

THE VERY LATEST TELEGRAMS

Skirmish near the Arkansas Line.

THE REBELS Routed.

GEN. JIM RAINS TAKEN PRISONER.

Latest from Gen. Curtis' Army.

Proclamation of the Rebel General Hindman.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 17. Price, of Mt. Vernon, has arrived here.

Arkansas into this, which is moving from of Lakeview a few days since, completely

Clarkson, formerly notorious in Kansas, prisoner. It is also reported that Gen.

was taken prisoner. The rebels placed their Indian allies in front, who are reported to have one hundred and forty killed, and one hundred and forty men just from Neosho. The federal forces are said to be near Lakeview.

Atto, July 15. Passengers by the boat from Memphis, report that General Price and his army, with a battery of artillery and forty wagon loads of Mississippi, at Cypress Bayou, near Napoleon. The battery was marked as "Hindman, Little Rock."

Another battery crossed Sunday evening and squad of men from Panola, Miss., were crossing in front of the apparently with a view of concentrating in Arkansas, perhaps to operate against General Curtis' army.

A special to the St. Louis Democrat, dated July 12th, says the advance of General Curtis' army, under General Washburn, reached the Arkansas river having left Clarendon, on the White river, yesterday, at six a. m., and made a forced march of sixty miles in a day and a night. Quartermaster Winslow will start for Memphis immediately, to hurry down supplies.

Gen. Curtis left Batesville on the 24th ult., with twenty days rations, and a halt of five days at Jackson's Post, to concentrate the forces in order to take up a line of march. His entire command now en route for this point is estimated to be twenty thousand.

The rebels un-derstand that the force of General Curtis is now en route for Memphis, and they are endeavoring to intercept him. A number of skirmishes on the Arkansas river have taken place, but without any result. The rebels are reported to have a large force of men and artillery, and are endeavoring to intercept General Curtis' army.

Gen. Curtis' army is now en route for Memphis, and is expected to arrive there in a few days.

The rebels are reported to have Thirty-Seventh Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 17. House.—The reading of yesterday's journal resumed various messages were received from the Senate, concerning the passage of certain bills. The speaker signed various enact bills, and much confusion prevailed.

A bill to divide Michigan into two judicial districts was passed.

Mr. Stephens, of Pa., moved that the House concur in the request of the Senate to extend the adjournment two o'clock to-day.

Mr. Hooker, of Mass., asked consent of House to introduce a bill providing that and after the 1st of August, all postage on other U. S. Stamps shall be received for all duties less five dollars and which may be received in exchange for U. S. stamps. No private corporation or bank shall use any such stamp or bank device for less than one dollar, to circulate as money. Any person so offending shall on conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000 dollars or imprisonment for 6 months or both, at the discretion of the Court. Objection having been made to Mr. Hooker's motion, he withdrew the bill. Mr. Hooker moved to read a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury urging the measure and enclosing the draft of the bill for the objects stated and also one copy of the bill. Mr. Stephens moved to bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to

bring it to a vote. Mr. Stephens moved to Teachers Elected.

At a meeting of the Seventh Ward

School Board, held on the 15th inst., the following teachers were elected for the ensuing year. Principal, John J. Taggart;

Assistant in Grammar Department, M. E.

Taggart; Intermediate Department, L. C.

Wright, and Harriet Matthews, E. H. Harlow, and M. Motter.

A Challenge.

James Hammill, our champion prize-

fighter, who recently carried off the first prize in the single stick match in the Boston

Regatta, has challenged John, Ward, of

New York, the champion of America, to fight for three miles, for $200 a side. The note was forwarded a few days since and the challenge will probably be accepted.

The Meadville College Volunteers.

In the late battle this company, of eight wounded and six missing. Capt.

Ayer was wounded slightly; he killed two rebels with his pistol.

Richard Denver, Treasurer of the

Butcher's Association, has given bail for forfealderman Kinkaid in the sum of $1,000, to appear at the next term of Court and answer the charge against him for issuing slipshirts.

Eight Fire.

The alarm of fire about half past eight o'clock yesterday morning was occasioned by a slight fire in a bank building on Third street, above Grant. The flames were seen extending without the aid of the fire department.

A No. 1 Oil Company.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Luce Oil Co.,

Duncan, Dunlap & Co., proprietors. They offer a large quantity of oil and their oil is of the best quality.

Harper's Monthly.

John W. Pitcock, opposite the Post office, sends us Harper for August. It has several good illustrated articles, and the reading matter is of an excellent interesting character. The number is most interesting. The price asked is five cents.

Relinery Burned.

The oil refinery of Geo. C. Bartlett, on

Old Creek, together with a quantity of crude and refined oil stored in the vicinity, was destroyed by fire last week.

For the West.

Col. W. Harry Peoples, who has been in the city for some weeks, starts for the West to-day.

MARRIED.

On Thursday evening, July 17, by Rev. A. J.

Evans, at the residence of the bride, Mr. J.

W. H. Peoples, to Miss KATE M. PATTERSON, of Pittsburgh.

Teachers Elected.

At a meeting of the Seventh Ward

School Board, held on the 15th inst., the

following teachers were elected for the en-

suing year. Principal, John J. Taggart;

Assistant in Grammar Department, M. E.

Taggart; Intermediate Department, L. C.

Wright, and Harriet Matthews, E. H. Har-

low, and M. Motter.

A Challenge.

James Hammill, our champion prize-

fighter, who recently carried off the first

prize in the single stick match in the Boston

Regatta, has challenged John, Ward, of

New York, the champion of America, to fight for three miles, for $200 a side. The

note was forwarded a few days since and

the challenge will probably be accepted.

The Meadville College Volunteers.

In the late battle this company, of

eight wounded and six missing. Capt.

Ayer was wounded slightly; he killed two

rebels with his pistol.

Richard Denver, Treasurer of the

Butcher's Association, has given bail for

forfealderman Kinkaid in the sum of $1,000,

to appear at the next term of Court and

answer the charge against him for issuing

slipshirts.

Eight Fire.

The alarm of fire about half past eight

o'clock yesterday morning was occasioned

by a slight fire in a bank building on Third

street, above Grant. The flames were

seen extending without the aid of the fire department.

A No. 1 Oil Company.

We call the attention of our readers to

the advertisement of the Luce Oil Co.,

Duncan, Dunlap & Co., proprietors. They

offer a large quantity of oil and their oil

is of the best quality.

Harper's Monthly.

John W. Pitcock, opposite the Post office, sends us Harper for August. It has

several good illustrated articles, and the

reading matter is of an excellent interesting character. The number is most interesting. The price asked is five cents.

Relinery Burned.

The oil refinery of Geo. C. Bartlett, on

Old Creek, together with a quantity of

crude and refined oil stored in the vicinity, was destroyed by fire last week.

For the West.

Col. W. Harry Peoples, who has been in the city for some weeks, starts for the West to-day.

MARRIED.

On Thursday evening, July 17, by Rev. A. J.

Evans, at the residence of the bride, Mr. J.

W. H. Peoples, to Miss KATE M. PATTERSON,

of Pittsburgh.

Teachers Elected.

At a meeting of the Seventh Ward

School Board, held on the 15th inst., the

following teachers were elected for the en-

suing year. Principal, John J. Taggart;

Assistant in Grammar Department, M. E.

Taggart; Intermediate Department, L. C.

Wright, and Harriet Matthews, E. H. Har-

low, and M. Motter.

A Challenge.

James Hammill, our champion prize-

fighter, who recently carried off the first

prize in the single stick match in the Boston

Regatta, has challenged John, Ward, of

New York, the champion of America, to fight for three miles, for $200 a side. The

note was forwarded a few days since and

the challenge will probably be accepted.

The Meadville College Volunteers.

In the late battle this company, of

eight wounded and six missing. Capt.

Ayer was wounded slightly; he killed two

rebels with his pistol.

Richard Denver, Treasurer of the

Butcher's Association, has given bail for

forfealderman Kinkaid in the sum of $1,000,

to appear at the next term of Court and

answer the charge against him for issuing

slipshirts.

Eight Fire.

The alarm of fire about half past eight

o'clock yesterday morning was occasioned

by a slight fire in a bank building on Third

street, above Grant. The flames were

seen extending without the aid of the fire department.

A No. 1 Oil Company.