THE ANDREWS PATENT PIPE.

PATERTED JANUARY 21, 1862.)

BEQUIRES ONLY A TRIAL TO Prove its incomparable superiority to any pipe now in use. It may be smoked without early detectrious or unpleasent effects, as the oil of to-bacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the dunne does not become furred or contest from in haiting its poisonous properties. The bowl is made of the finest levonshire olay, and gives to the to-bacco a peculiarly pleasant fragrance. The tot oacco counst become most, as in ordinary lipse, because the drip beneath receives the saliva that insensibly exapes into the effect when the pipe in ver becomes offensively rank and the breath of the sancker does not preclaim to every one he meets that he has been 'indulging in a pipe."

When the bowl becomes clouged, or the drip beneath requires cleaning, the pipe may be taken apart by removing the rim. The clay bowl may at any time by re tured to its original whiteness he burning in the fire, that driving it thoroughly or a new bowl may be procured of the dealer.
