Think Mr. Editor, you will agree with

During the past year and five months the Hose. had now arrived when this great question should be looked at soberly and seriously. During the past year and five months the lives of many of our best men have been sacrificed, and it has now become apparent that the subjugation of the rebels in arms against the government, and the dis-ruption of this beautiful country are trem-bling in the balance. Pennsylvania has done her duty nobly in the struggle—she has furnished men and money, and this imunity had given some of the brightest jewels from its social circle. But w will weep not for the brave who have died in the cause of human freedom, but hear ing in mind our old traditions, resolve that this government shall be maintained and n to our children as it was given to us. A voice from Washington asks for more help -- the President says he needs more men, and we must respond to the call, -The time for crimination and recrimination has passed-political issues must be buried the constituted authorities. Pennsylvania is asked for twenty-on ew regiments and to fill up the ranks of the old ones thinned by disease, fire and word. He came to witness the spirit of the people here—to ask for more men from this noble county, which has already contributed to largely to the war.
