The Union as it was:

AUDITOR GENERAL. ISAAC SLENKER, Union County. SURVEYOR GENERAL.

JAMES P. BARR, Allegheny County. PITTSEUGOH. July 19, 1882, 1 St. Charles Hotel, The Democratic County Committee of Cerr pondence met at the St. Charles Hotel at o'clock, a. X., and was called to order by Ther

Donnelly Chairman.
The following resolutions were unanim adopted, viz.

adopted, viz.

be instructed to call a Convention of the Demoracy of Allegheny county to meet at the Convention the city of Purburgh, on Wednesda the 13th day of August at 11 o'clock a M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for count offices, Members of the State Legislature, an Members of Courress. muers of Congress. in the County be requested to meet at their usural laces of holding Primary Elections on Saturdathe 9th day of August, to elect two delegates and Convention: the meetings in the Township to be held between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock P. M., and in the Wards and Eoroughs, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock, P. M., of said day.

On motion, adjourned.

On motion, adjourned.
THOS. DONNELLY, Pre-lient.
SAN'L HARPER, Secretary.

Meeting of the Democratic STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE The members of the DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE are hereby requested to meet at the MERCHANT'S HOTEL, in the City of Philadelphia. On Tuesday, the 29th of July,

INST., AT 7 1-2 O'CLOCK, P. M. A full attendance of all the members is argently requested. Besides the business of the organization of the Committee, it will be necessary to adom measures for the thorough organization of the loyal masses throughout the State, who desire that their political action the ensuing Fall shall afford convincing evidence that the great body of the people of this Commonwealth are resolved to Maintain the National Constitution, And that the Union of these States shall not be broken up, either by the open and armed assaults of enemies South, or the equally direct, but more insiduous movement of fees in the North. It is also desired, that in view of what the course of events has rendered probable, foreign intervention in our domostic strife, and the complete vention in our domestic First, and the co-operation of Abolitionists at home and abroad, to provent the restoration of the Union on the asis of the Constitution, the Democratic party and other loyal citizens supporting our organizaion, should present an undivided front to foreign

F. W. HUGHES Chairman Dem. State Central Com.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 25.

 Beading matter on every page.

A MORE VIGOROUS POLICY. The country has been informed that the have not been informed. The elevation people on the ground. The scene was most striking commentary upon the policy which cut up the grand Army of the Potomac into fragments, leaving each to a separate command. This selection of a additional life to the whole scane. general in chief is an acknowledge-and inconsiderate. The President's late order to the tien erals, relative to subsisting upon the enemy Law of the Land: "The Federal t mon must and shall be Preserved:" "No Draft must and shall be Preserved: "No Draft must and So. 2 was the following inscription: "Liberty and Union, Now and Forever, One and Inseparable." On No. 3: "Traft must and Inseparable." well issue such a proclamation, if the champions of it can show how it will put stands were also erected upon the grounds. down the rebels. Now that a more vigorons policy is to be inaugurated, the Government should resort to all means to crush the rebellion. For our own part, we believe that such a proclamation would be worth no more than the paper it was written on; but still, let it be tried, in order to gratify that large party of malcontents who place so much reliance in such declarations. It is quite Hon. B. C. Sawyer, Hon. Simon Drum evident that the organs of the extreme evident that the organs of the extreme Mayor of Pitts. Mayor of Alleg'y radicals will never be satisfied until the President issues such a paper as they Reuben Miller, jr., Christ, McCaffery, desire. Their sole interest in this war John Anderson, against rebels to our government seems to John Morrison, Nicholas Voegtly, were that question once removed, we suspect that their interest in the contest John Birmingham, would suddenly cease. We trust, there James P. Barr, fors, that a proclamation of universal sames verner, francis Felix, man D. Fickersen, John Harper, James McAuley, class the desirable results, but in order that the large class who desire it may have an opportunity John McD. Crossar of testing their great panaces for putting John B. Guthric, down the rebellion Let them with G. L. B. Fetterman down the rebellion. Let them try it, and if it fails they must be satisfied with their Porter R. Friend, William Rogalay.

On the rebellion. Let them try it, and if it fails they must be satisfied with their Porter R. Friend, William Rogalay. experiment; should it succeed, thereby giving freedom to four millions of slaves, the next interesting question will be how are they to be provided for? The Abolitionists Springer Harbaugh, Joseph Woodwell, will never be satisfied until the President David D. Bruce, James McCully. issues the proposed proclamation; and the James Kelly, sooner he does it the sooner will he and Wm. G. Hawkins, they find out that in their calculations up- Henry Chalfant, on such windy auxilliaries they were as Wm. Graham, sr., much mistakan as they have been constituted to the control of the con much mistaken as they have been generally in their conceptious of the means to put down the rebele.

YOUNG HEROES.

Among the many gallant young men from this locality, who have given striking Thomas Verner, exhibitions of lofty and genuine heroism, Samuel Fahnestock we are pleased to record that of the young Riddles. William and John, sons of our late sitisen and cotemporary, Robert M. Riddle Francisco. Biddle, Esq. William was engaged in the James Taylor, Riddle, Esq. William was engaged in the John Shaffer, obstinate engagement at Mechanicsville on the 26th of last month, where he was Alex. McKee, wounded in the head; on the following day Martin Cleaver, his captain was killed, when he took command of the company: On the 30th he lead his command with admirable coolmess and precision, and when last seen he was engaged bettling against superior numwas engaged bettling against superior numThomas Gibson, John McCintock,
Wan, Brickell,
Wan, Baunage,
John Redneth,
John Redneth,
John Hutchman, berre. In this bloody engagement young James Dickey, Riddle is supposed to have been overpow.

Harmar Dehaven, Riddle is supposed to nave used will, A. G. Lloyd, A. G. Lloyd, John Shaw,

DAILY POST. The Great Mas Meeting! Hance Herron, Thomas I. Shields THE DESIGNATION OF THE PROPLE 20,000 FREE NAME AND A MINISTER PATRIOTIC ADDRESS BY

Appropriate Resolutions Soul-Stirring Speeches by Gov. Curtin and Others.

Democratic State Ticket. National Songs, Patriotic and Enlivening Music.

In communicative were unanimously ratified by the meeting, and the blessing of God was invoked upon the assemblage and Enlivening Music.

Never was the pre-eminent patriotism? and deep-seated love of our national institutions which have so long marked the people of Pennsylvania more strikingly manifested than yesterday. in the great lemonstration for the purpose of ting the common cause of the whole North by taking the necessary measures for putfor troops. If any doubt had existed as to the unanimity of the people of this com- from our present calamities. munity and its vicinity apon the question be dispelled by the scene, of yesterday.-There seemed to be but one sentiment per-mination to suppress the robelties at all hazards, and at whatever cost. THE DAY.

The weather was auspicious for a great outpouring of the people, and although the atmosphere was very warm, they came by thousands, and stood for hours under the scorching rays of the sun, listening ; a tiently to the proceedings of the great meeting. The principal buildings on the main streets of the city were accorated with flags, more profusely than on or Jipary gala-days, and the places of business were closed from the hour of noon, giving to the millionare and the laborer amai lib erty to take part in the glorio : proceedings of the day.

THE STREET About noon the streets began to fill The excursion trains on the railroads as the passenger cars from the suburbs came laden down with human freight. Band of music drew the citizens fro s-while the gay dress of the Purk Zourve and the stirring music of the fifes and drums employed by recruiting officers at-tracted the juveniles and Young America. By one o'clock the main thoroughture were a moving mast of humanity, surging towards the Allegheny river. THE PROCESSION.

At half-past twelve the President of it day and a number of the speakers had as-Trade rooms, where carriages were assigned them by the Committee of Arrangeuents. Gov. Cartin had been brought rom the Monongahela House in a car-of the United States, we thank The fo-inge, which was placed at the head of a the patriotism and zeal of the Governor c procession, headed by a terms, bank, fol- our own Commonwealth, and for the effect lowed by the other carriages, the rear being brought up by Young's brass land and inclined this great State to render to

THE CROSS ON THE COURSE. When the procession reached the W. Administration has determined upon a more vigorous war policy than has characterized its proceedings; but what the her is not over-estimated when we say that contemplated change is to consist in we at one time there were twenty thereined of General Halleck to the chief command and recruiting offices, and the people were good humored, (men, women and chillech in the people were good humored, (men, women and chillech in the people were good humored). step in the right direction; but it is a dren) liberally patronizing the many re

THE STANDS.
The spenkers stands were four in num ment that the action referred to was hasty ber. On the main stand, located on the upper side of the Common, was a large spread engle, and the following mottos

The Constitution shall be the Supreme words are wanting." A proclamation of tors have no Rights under the Constitution, emancipation to the slaves, it argues, except to be hanged. On No. 4, set anort for the Germans, was the following appropriately. The President, we think, might as A number of enlistment and refreshmen THE ORGANIZATION.

It was nearly two o'clock before all the speakers arrived, and after an air from one of the bands. Hon. Thomas M. Howe, chairman the committee of arrangements, took the stand and announced the officers of the day, as follows:

HON, WILLIAM WILKINS.

Mayor of Alleg'y. J. M. Hoffman, 'A. Holstein. Thomas Farley, James Salisbury Chas. T. Ihmsen Capt. Jno Patterson Thomas Fawcett, Henry McCullough John W. Riddell

Dr. Thos. F. Dale, Moore Thompson, John Sampson, A. B. Stevenson, heodore H. Nevin C. Zug, Robert H. Hartley, Dr. A. H. Gross, James McCully.
Josiah King,
David Negley, Francis Sellers, John Scott, Thomas Donnelly,

John Summerhil of Col. John Scott, Elizabeth J. Haymaker, Wm. A. Shaw, Wm. L. Miller, Samuel Walker, Dr. Shaffer, Frank Patterson Elijah Heath, Samuel Large, Josiah Miller, Benj. A. Mevay, J. E. McCabe, J. E. McCabe, W. J. Gilmore, Andrew Pierce,

John D. Harper, T. J. Bigham, Col. Wm. Espy, David Duff, Robert Morrow as. D. Hilands. James Haslott, John Magill,
Natilet,
Dr. A. G. McQuaid

apt. John Hay, of Haysville, Robert Stevenson Robert Stevenson, R. D. Cochran, J. H. Shoenberger, H. B. Wilkins. Jas. B. Murray, Jos. Ganeter, Gen J. N. Purviance, W. H. Denny, Col. Wm. Herron, Wm. M. Lyon. John C. Davitt Josiah Copley. Mansfield Brown, SECRETARIES.

Robert Finney, J. R. Hunter, Samuel Harper, Wm. B. Negley, Wm. C. Morelar Thos. M. Bayne, E. A. Montooth. The nominations were ununimously ret-

BY REV. W. D. HOWARD.

O, Thou great and ever blessed God who art the Creator, the Preserver, and Benefactor of all beings, we, Thy servants, in this hour of our country's trial and peril, come to thee to implore Thy protect tion. Thy guidance and Thy almighty aid. Thou art the Supreme Ruler of the Uni verse: Thou doest Thy pleasure in the armies of heaven and among the inhabitant ting in the field the quots of men required princess decree justice, and to Thec from the Old Reystone under the new call encouraged by the promises of Thy word for troops. If any doubt had existed as to and Thy past favors to us a nation, we now o Thee our sincere and hearty thanks for of the necessity of sustaining the govern all Thou hast done for usduring the many ment in its present strait they could not but be dispelled by the scene of extended to the that in Thy most merciful providence Thou didst plant this nation. Thou didst cast out the heathen and prepar rading the assembled multitude, a deter, room for it. Thou didst cause deep root and fill the land, the hills wer covered with the ahadow of it and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars he sent out her boughs unto the sen and er branches unto the rivers." Thee for the wisdom, the purity and the patrictism of the founders of our cruel in titutions-We thank Thee that didst incline them to make such sacrifices and to endure such toils that we might dwell in safety and peace-we thank Thee for the work of their hands: for the noble will hasten to, and voluntarily plodge the military power, to crush this rebellion. Constitution, our just and equal laws, our mild and paternal government, under which we are permitted to enjoy life and parsue happiness, and what is better than life and our happiness, to worship These according to the dictates of our conscience would I hail Alleghens county as standand the directions of Thy Word.

And now, O Lord, that these institution are threatened, and our safety and very existence us a nation imperiled by wicked men, bound together by impious oaths we bless and praise Thee that Thou has inspired so large a portion of our country men to come forth to the defence of our Povernment, our firesides and our altars. We thank Thee, that though the conspiri tors are numerous our defenders are more numerous, that although there are a few misguided men in our midst who secretly sympathize with the rebels, or heartlessly stand aloof, refusing by word or deed, or rayer to Thee, to give encouragement to our just cause, there are such multitudes sembled, by invitation, at the Board of who are willing to sacrifice their property Trade rooms, where carriages were as and even their lives, for the defence of our country. We thank Thee, for the wisdom and integrity of Thy servant, the President order they our general Covernment in subdeing the

And whilet, O lord God, we render
The thanks for Thy mercies, we scknowledge ourselves unworthy of them.
We have raised bad men to places of power and trust; we have tolerated the most shameless corruption in our public sevents—we have profused Tay name and Thy Sabbath—and Thy captures, O Lord.
The thanks for Thy mercies, we scknowledge ourselves unworthy of them.
We have raised bad men to places of power and trust; we have tolerated the most shameless corruption in our public terratory.

The thanks for Thy mercies, we scknowledge ourselves and the nonerical focus of the power and trust; we have tolerated the most shameless corruption in our public terratory and the nonerical focus of the trust our feel—you must give unit you do feel. You must open your basket and your store, and spend what the servants—we have profused Tay name and Thy creatures, O Lord.
Thy Sabbath—and Thy creatures, O Lord.
The shabeth our feel—you must give unit you do feel. You must open your basket and your store, and spend what the treasonable confederacy is given than an interest the most of the reverse and the nonerical focus of the respenditue.

At the consulted as to the officers who may be added in command over them, Messer.

It will not do for you to say that you do not feel—you must give unit you do feel. You must open your basket and your store, and spend what the treasonable confederacy is given what you do not feel—you must give unit you do feel. You must open your basket and your store, and spend what the find any form the land our feel—you must give unit you do feel. You must open your store, and spend what the find any form the land our feel—you must give unit you do feel. You must open your store, and spend what the find any feel thanks and spend what the find any feel thanks and feel and your store, and spend what you do not feel—you must give unit you do feel. You must open your store, and spend your store, and sp

Government. Let Thy fear fill their plete in the full complement of their aumsponsibility which devolves upon them. Inpire them with wisdom, with hope, with sary to supply the deficiency, and emide mand. Make them skillful, brave and successful. Help them to forget them selves and labor only for the deliverance of their country and Thy glory. Bless, we take the achievment! The beseech Thee, O Lord, our army and navy.

Impart to them carnage, strength, and en-Impart to them carnage, strength, and endurance. Make them invincible in battle, days of battles give full claim to the army

■Fellow Citizens:-There are many treason! considerations, more intimately known to Start not, when I say there must be venlic crisis of self and national preservation, Go-and avenge the deaths of Black, Rip-

Whilst I gratefully thank you for thus distinguishing me, and intimate what must be obvious to friend and to stranger, do not suppose for a moment that I am cold, or neutral, on the great event of the day. I am with you in your anexampled unanistration, and every sentiment of my heart in the record and perpetuate the pround intraction, and every sentiment of my heart is detertation of the atroclous treason many part in the heroic deed.

But, if the capture of Richmond cannot throw a government that a mining position of which that mining position of which that mining position of which that mining position of the atroclous from the context until the Rebel Confideracy in the property is not respected. But, if the capture of Richmond cannot throw a government that are observed, we cannot save Washington.

The power that resists the one may be a server waged where a false chilvally respected the many positions of the scale of your country that we many positions of the scale of your country that we many positions of the scale of your country that we many to the deed.

But, if the capture of Richmond cannot throw a government that resists the game may be given in the scale of your country that we many positions and the singular to the scale of your country that we many to the teachings of history—that were means violence, and in war man relapses into a state of barbarian; life is a nothing, and a property is not respected.

But, if the capture of Richmond cannot throw a government that resists the game may be given in the popular to the other, and if the public and the property of an enemy, if we find an enemy, is the scale of the popular to the popular to the other, and if the public and the property of an enemy, is the popular to the popular to the popular to the property were and the property of an enemy, is the popular to the popular to heart, and the last quivering murmur of families? my lips, would be in prayer for the success of the Administration and the overthrow of the rebellion.

At this moment, my fellow citizens, in to bring the war to a successful termination. This is the great and preliminary object Let all other political questions and con more appropriate and happy era when shall again cover the land. To meet the necessary and patrictics of the President, the quota required to be furnished by each of the leval States will he fairly assigned. That which will fat upon Pennsylvania, my knowledge of he patriotism, of her devotion to the Consti of the earth; by Thee Kings reign and tution and laws, and of the courage of her people, assure me will be promptly furnished, and early on its march to benelook for help and a happy deliverance and to victory. The eyes of the count from our present calamities. We render will had be dear the count of the will be fixed on the movement of the great Keystone State of the Union a commo wealth bordering on three Slave Stateforming the link between the popular, East and the far-spreading West, and has ing its Northern limit almost within the range of the eyes of a foreign nation, to whom any display of our military aptitude, prompiness and power, can never be any thing but a spectacle of gall and bitterne a And then with what lively interest and in see with what patriotic arder and military Pennsylvanians. spirit the young, the hale and the steat, expitation, at the close of an advanced rite.

soldiers. You are now asked by year our general Covernment in subdaing this tion and reward.

Some reflective covernment to subdained the wind response and substantial successes of our army, both on the land and the water—and blage may rightfully est one. Why this call successes of our farmy, both on the land and the water—and blage may rightfully est one. Why this call successes of our favor and Thy good hat d upon us, all the schemes of the enemies of our country shall find of accomplishment, and this most wicked rebellion be effectually subdued.

And whilst, O Lord God, we render answer, War changes its attitudes. There of our benefits the respect to the consulted as to the officers who may be necessary to constitude the feels of iron ships, and if our twenty millions rise now we can protect ourselves against their insolence.

While thousands of our beloved citizens are enduring the vicinstitudes of war, in camp and on the battle-field—while thousands of our beloved citizens which is promote that it is also to complishment, and this most wicked rebellion be effectually subdued.

And whilst, O Lord God, we render answer, War changes its attitudes. There of our benefits the safety many uniorescents to make the officers while thous and she died in our twenty militions rise now we can protect ourselves.

While thousands of our beloved citizens while theory in the insurance of war, in comparison to five insurance of the Consulter as their insolence.

While thousands of our beloved citizens while thousands of our beloved citizens against their insolence.

While thousands of our beloved citizens against their insolence.

While thousands of our beloved citizens against their insol national sins; give us, we beseech thee, true repentence and remove from the land everything that pollutes it and brings down upon us Thy just anger.

And now, O Lord God, our Defender, Our Help in trouble, in this control of the c seech Thee to pour out upon our country aspirit of grace and supplication and in spire every breast with courage and hope.

Bless Thy servant, the President of the Change of the enemy. Many of the regiments of Certific and the regiments of Certific and the supplication and in the overthrow of the analysis of the enemy. Many of the regiments of Certific and the country promptly lead, as is confidently believed, the confidence of the carry of the overthrow of the analysis of the country so that cur are of the country so that cur are of the country and alacrity in now coming up to the crisis shall be worthy of imitation by sister country.

HAIL, COLUMBIA!

Bless 1 by servant, the President of the the army of the Potomac, intended for unthe shore deady seen drough the mists of the United States and mose who are associa-ted with him in the administration of the this interesting movement, are not com-where the horizontal hancaty host in dread silence bers. The volunteers called for are necescourage, with patriotism, with vigor, and with justice. Bless Thy servant, just raised to the responsible nost of Commander into the responsible post of Commander-in-chief of our armies, and all others in com-necessary to give numerical equality to O'erthe land of the free and the home of the brave!

rollution:
No reloge could save the hireling and slave.
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth Impart to them carnage, strength, and endurance. Make them invincible in battle, and let them triumph over their enemies. Those who fall, through Thy grace in Jesus our Lord, crown with everlasting life, and those who are now sick and wounded, and may yet be, restore, that they may still bless their country, and enjoy its blessings. Let the counsels of our commiss be brought to confusion, let them hear Thy rebuking voice, let them be defeated, and scattered like chaff before the latter than the start of the property and peace, may onr Heaven of Allegheny, floats over the capital. The hall of legislative traitors, in fright and despair, is ignominously deserted. You ebellion and restore to our beloved coun-enter the rotunda and there reseme the O'er the land of the free and the home of the try, peace, harmony, and happiness, and marble statue of Washington, desecrated truth, be holiness, a blessing and a praise in all the earth. These and all other giance, who now deny his name, and in in all the earth. These and all other blessings which, as a people, we need, we humbly implore, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

Mr. Howe now introduced to the meeting Hon. Wm. Wilkins, the President of the day who was greated with three on the day who was greated with three or the day who was greated with the day who was greated with three or the day who was greated with the day who was greated to the day who was greated to be a day who was greated to be a da the day, who was greeted with three enhusiastic cheers. When they had subhusiastic cheers. When they had subvaliant returned Volunteer of Allegheny, considerations, more intimately known to myself than to you, that should have kept from me the honor of presiding over a friends and neighbors, in their full courses the friends and neighbors, in their full courses the firends and neighbors, in the firends and neighbors are fully full courses the firends and neighbors are full courses the firends and neighbors are full courses the firends and neighbors are full courses the firends and neighbors. mass meeting called together upon a pub- age, have fallen in the midst of the battle. now being cut and soon to fill the granslic crisis of self and national preservation, more deeply interesting than any political personal and see your smiling prosperity—save event since the adoption of that Federal wounds of the brave Col. Sweitzer.

Constitution under which you have lived in domestic peace for nearly eighty years, and enjoyed more prosperity than any other nation on earth.

Yes. There lies, in ignomy and in treach erry, beleaugered Richmond. Your friends, in fall armor and panting for the onset under a young, brave and skillful common than the lasten to strengthen the National Government of the Republic are in jeopardy. But this beneficent government has stood the shock of two foreign wars, as it mander, aided and confided by surround-distinguishing me, and intimate what must in gallant generals, only wait to hear the tration of which that minor portion of the unificient for the other, and if the public If we find an enemy, house or his horse, archives of your country the very home of patronage, and of office. No; no; of your government—cannot be protected, on which I sit, the last impulse of my serve the private archives of your own the Government, the benificence of Cites

Remember, that in the carry part of the eventful year of '61 there were more dee in the face of everything that has been said forever the Rebellion, and re-establishing that has been said forever the Rebellion, and re-establishing that has been said forever the Rebellion, and re-establishing that has been said forever the Rebellion. signing and threatening ever of treasons and published it must be admitted that the throughout the land the authority of the campaign of the Peninsula has been a failble engineers than we were generally aware is a public happiness to believe that the of, fixed apon the military position of the men—those who are dead we cannot help is a public happiness to believe that the of, fixed apout the military position of the course of events at Washington, and the head of the Ohio river and the county of call of the President of the United States Allegheny. I cannot venture to say what might have been gained by a bold advenplainly indicate an enegetic policy speedily ture, induced by the vast and wide-spread ture, induced by the vast and wide-spread advantages of the spot and its surroundings wherever awassemble, to as invading away, had not Western Virginia stood firm and faithful to the Union. The loyalty of our neighbors became a discouraging, introversies give way, and be postponed to the and faithful to the Union. The loyalty of our neighbors became a discouraging, inpeace, and union, and the Constitution terposed obstacle. Well do they deserve from Congress the publy earned reward of separation and independence.

It is mulancholy to me that I cannot portand, by glowing and alogue at language, to urge you to duty and to action. My day has gone by. I our only fieldly state to you the attitude of year country. Your hearts are with it; your hearts are a unit; conquer the enemy, the enemy will conquer you. It approaches to despair and reason to give room to the thought that the minority of States, and they the slave Union is broken up and the laws of freebellies, who can tall what is to be erected in their place. ? You would have over you reckless, despotic rule of parpetual hatred and hostillity, resting on the mulign tense anxiety will public attention and basis of clavery, and repugnant to all the watchfulness be rivoted on each county, to feeling, and pursuits of the free race of

Ask not whence is to come the physical. themselves, under the tolds of the star Were you to do so, the answer is to be themselves, under the tolds of the star spangled banner, to the service of their found in the relative population of the two disburse it if furnished me. Wit, all the country. O, with what State pride and section; of the Union—the free and the dave snew more distinctly drawn than at ing at the head agent the seroll of errol of make the reference, although my pride as responsive to our government, that gova Pennsylvanian interposes and tells me or yet the expenses would be mortifying to the disappointed public expectation. You of free stree and give rise to wonder that government, which never deserts you, but in the archives and official documents of devotedly protects and cherishes you in the tigrenment. Listen for a moment, this hour of its anxiety to discharge a like population of the free States is over the government will carry it out, for they an appropriation out of the public treatment with an appropriation out of the public treatment. univer-al duty, and a same the hon rable mineteen millions: the white population of are but the servants of the people. character, by your own good will, or you all the lave States is less than seven miluniter soldiers more conscripts, as on dest from this the white popular polic governments and desfead milities. Deduct from this the white popular than a transfer of bodied chizen who will polic governments and desfead milities. States are left with a ries in foreign countries and asked for involunteer to serve as part of the quota of Pennsylvania in the army of the United

And now, O Lord God, our Defender, our Hope, our Hope, our Hope in trouble, in this hour of darkness, of trial, of peril, have mercy upon us. We beseech Thee to make bare Thine arm and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make bare Thine arm and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. We beseech Thee to make seed and deliver us. If the possession of that capital of the continue to the religion and down children. I go to perform my duties in which and the capital of the continuence to call where the triangle and the capital of the continuence to the continuence and the capital of the continuence to the continuence to the continuence to the continuence to the continuence and the capital of the continuence to the continuence and the continuence to the continuence and the continuence to the continuence and the continuence and the continuence to the continue reposes,

What is that which the breeze, o'er the towaring when is that which the effect, o or the towering size.

As if fitfully blove, haltconceals, half discloses?

Now it catches the gloans of the morning's first beam.

In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream:

It is the star-spanished banner: Oh, long may it

And where eithat band whose vauntingly swore that the heroet of war and the battle's confusion A home and a country-shall leave us no more?— Their blood has washed out their foul focisteps' the say, who they had sub-thusiastic cheers. When they had sub-sided, the venerable Judge delivered the when he recounts his glorious part in the ings it makes an occasion which all wil when he recounts his glorious part in the captivity of Richmond and the crush of treason!

Start not, when I say there must be venished by the construction of the con now being cut and soon to fill the grams.

Executive Committee, now read the resour infancy—feeling in our heart of heart and see your smiling prosperity—save

Resolved, That the hour of danger

Resolved, That the hour of danger

Chick her shield her shield and the state of the government of the gov million of our citizens are in arms.

government to act unless the people declare that this government shall be maintained. I care not whose the fault has been; we of Pennsylvania must declare that the contituted authorities shall be upheld.

We have had seventy-three years of alhearts are with it; your hearts are aunit; to enjoy profound peace. Why should to assail the enemy, seize his place of we be exempt from the fate of nations? at and decide the contest. If you do not A war is upon us and we are asked for employed to retard the trainable of our the minority of States, and they the slave and debased, can overturn and supplant the government of this Republic. If the Shall I speak of them and then State inseparable from the present peril-Union is broken up and the laws of free dom is simpled under the black foot of remen of your State down and help the one condition of the country.

Many the state of the property of the pr In this emergency the government has asked us for twenty-one new regiments.

To secure the enlistment of enough men to fill these regiments it was necessary for us to follow the example of other States and offer a bounty. I hesitated to call the Legislature together and I had no power to take money from the treasury. To call the Legislature together would require four to eight weeks and as much longer to neotiate loan -. I could not call on the peoproclamation and throw myself on the heart of the people of Pennsylvania-and any other period of your history. I would now, unless the heart of our people beats ernment can be made no stronger.

The President and the people have learned that this is war. bloody, grim-Attegheny county have nobly come up to the present strife could be maintained for the mark. You have distinguished years a day ander such vast inequality of popusations of war. The time has come when allies of war. The time has come when the lives and property of traitors must be quired as a bounty to each patriotic cutsacrificed, without a proclamation from zen who will volunteer to serve in the any General. We need no proclamation to enforce this—no lawyer to expound it.

The people have advanced this policy and

The people have advanced this policy and

these, bought by the money of the secondry state population of these man four naments. The negroscate population of the Northern lies, and there is the basic of version of the Northern State of New York, Pennsylvania and try's gratifulde and care, generated population of the more than the this nation let the English lion show his field, should freely contribute of their news. Our see coast is girt with paired to our children and our childrens ments.

Resolved. That the citizens of the coun-

HAIL, COLUMBIA! BY JOSEPH HOPKINSON.

Hail, Columbia, happy land!
Hail, ve heroes, heaven-born hand,
Who fought and bled in Freedom's cause,
Who fought and bled in Freedom's cause,
Who fought and bled in Freedom's cause,
An-i, when the storm of war was gone,
Enloyed the peace your valor wen!
Let independence be our beast,
Ever mindful what it cost;
Ever grateful for the prize,
Let its altar reach the skies.
Firm, united let us be,
Rallying round our liberty!
As a band of brothers joined,
Peace and safety we shall find.

Importal patriots rise once more.
Defend your rights, defend your shore:
Let no rade foe, with implous hand,
Let no rude foe, with implous hand,
Invade the shrine where sacred lice
Of toil and blood the well-carned prize.
White offering peace, sincere and just,
In Heaven we place a manly trust.
That truth and justice will prevail,
And every scheme of bondage fail.

Firm, united, &c.

Sound, sound the trump of fame!
Let Washington's great name
King through the world with loud applause!
Ring through the world with loud applause!
Let every clime to freedom dear
Listen with a joy fat ear!
With equal skill, with god-like power lis goveros in the fearful hour of horrid war, or guides with ease
The happier time of honest peace.

Firm, united, &c.

Behold the chief who now commands Once more to serve his country stands,— The rock on which the storm will beat; The rock on which the storm will beat: Increes on which the storm will heat:
But, armed in virtue, firm and true,
His hopes are fixed on Heaven and you.
When hope was sinking in dismay,
When gloom obscured Coundbia's day,
His steady mind, from changes free,
Recolved on death or liberty.
Firm, united, &c.
Here Mr. Howe amounted that the energetic employment of all the means is attested by our prosperity when half a whomsoever they may belong, in a manner consistent with humanity and the usages of Pennsylvania men are loyal men, and civilized nations, to crush out at once and

Resolved, That in boldly pressing upon emain.

The time for recrimination is past—the our many to new deeds of heroism and redown the spirit of liberty which lives in the preservation from the grasp of violence is near at hand, hereby pledge to the National most uninterrupted peace since this government was formed—seventy-three years of the blessings of freedom—seventy-three rebellion: and we most carnestly implore years of experience in civilization and unexampled prosperity. This is a long time States, his ministers and advisers, speedily to enjoy profound peace. Why should to assail the enemy, seize his place of ore troops to carry it on. Pennsylvania arms, and resolutely and with unflinching has already given many men and much money in this cause. Some of her best blood has been spilled on the battle-field. President of the United States is not only From your own community some of your unimpaired, but hourly increased, by the brightest jewels have been torn—your boldness and wisdom with which he han-

> Resolved. That his Excellency A. G. Cur tin, Governor of our Commonwealth, de serves, and as hereby tendered the gratitude of this meeting, for the alic, vigorous and correct discharge of the highly responsible duties devolving upon him in placing the State in the very front rank of the detend-ers of the Union, for his unceasing care of our noble men who are in their country's service, and for his well plained measures for the comfort of the sick and disabled, and that these humane exertions will here after brighten the pages of our history, and cover his name with honor.

> Resolved. That our sorrow at the loss of those who have fallen in battle, the sad re-cital of the sufferings of the sick, the pangs of the wounded, and the privations of the captive, should appeal to every man to aid with all his strength to terminate the horrors of a war which has filled the land with lamentation and mourning.
>
> Resolved, That to enable our glorious old Commonwealth promptly to place in the field her quota of men, it is expedient to raise by subscription among our own people such sums of money as will be rearmy of the United States, rather than leave you in the full confidence that you meetings of the people in the unit will perform yours.

At the conclusion of the Governor's delay, to co-operate with said committee and aid in taising money for ties in Western Pennsylvania and sustain the reputation we have aiready acquired in nobly putting into the field a large and effective force. Resolved, That it is advisable that public meetings be called without delay throughout the several cities and counties of this broad Commonwealth, to stir the people to action, infuse into them new energy in the cause we are nobly fighting to sustain, and to convince them of the necessity of a more active prosecution of the war in defense of the Constitution and gsvernment, and the propriety of raising the required bounty money for volunteer. the required bounty money for volunteer, soldiers and the necessary funds for the maintainance of their families during their absence.

Resolved, That we earnestly urge upon the citizens of every county in the Commonwealth to delay not a moment, or for any cause, to furnish the number of men assigned to each county by the Governor. The institutions under which we live sre now in the balance, and the manner in which we act now to preserve them will determine perhaps forever their value. On motion, the resolutions, as road, were unanimously adopted. Judge Wilkins now rose and introduced to the meeting Hon. W. F. Johnston, whom he mentioned as a boy in compari-son with himself.

on with minsen. He delivered an address, of which we can only give an abstract:
This war, he said, of personal one, which comes home to the fireside of every man. Its objects are the maintenance of the Union and the preservation of the Constitution—instituted with many sacrifices by those who enablished one and made were the maintain our institutions we must give them into the guardanship of the maintain our the whole hadron the page. Unless you do resolve with maintain to shoulder in the maintain th