

NEW YORK, July 25.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says: "It is needless to say that the resignation of Secretary Seward is with-out foundation. The President proposes to make no change in the Cabinet; and it is very certain he does not propose to displace at this juncture with a Cabinet minister so distinguished as Mr. Seward, and so competent to grapple successfully with foreign diplomats."

The correspondent of the Tribune says: "Gen. Halleck has assumed and is exercising the functions of General in Chief. He himself with Gen. Meigs, went to the national armory in Virginia. It is believed that after his return there will be, for the first time, thorough co-operation among the national armies in Virginia. The statement of the Herald, that Secretary Seward intends, in any contingency, to resign, is ridiculed here. The story that the United States has made a secret treaty with France, stipulating that the former shall not interfere with Napoleon's designs in Mexico, and that the latter shall not interfere in our affairs, is an entire fabrication."

MEMPHIS, July 22.—Major General Sherman has assumed command of this city. He has issued orders to the military and naval forces to the oath of allegiance yesterday, and one hundred and thirty received passes to go South. Many expressed their indignation at Sherman's arrival, and the order requiring them to take the oath or leave took effect. Sherman's arrival of the order requiring them to take the oath or leave took effect. Sherman's arrival of the order requiring them to take the oath or leave took effect.

Not a Rebel.

It was stated some time ago that John B. Gormley, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Pensacola, Fla., was in the rebel army. We are pleased to be able to say that we have seen a letter from him, dated Pensacola, Fla., July 22, in which he expresses the strongest Union sentiments, thanking God that the city is again under the Stars and Stripes. He states that he has had great trouble to keep his neck out of secession here, certain parties, for their own ends, having denounced him as an open secessionist. He says he is proud to be a citizen of the Union, and sworn that he had large sums of money belonging to parties North, and was covering all his property into coin with the intention of escaping to Fort Pickens. He visited his store, seized everything, books, notes, papers, money, &c. Fortunately the Consul, Mr. Gormley, was not at home, and he has never met since. Mr. Gormley did not suffer in person, but he has lost his property. He is now Mayor of the city under the Union regime, and intends remaining in Pensacola. Mr. Gormley is well known here, and it will be gratifying to his many friends to learn that he is loyal.
