Recruiting is still going on actively, and if we had the assurance that the Government will accept volunteers under the second call for 300, 1000 men, the quota of Allegheny county, nearly three thousand inore, could be ready in two weeks from this day. Our people do not want to be drafted—they prefer going voluntarily. Negotiations are in progress by which it is expected that a sufficient sum of money will be procured to pay-to every volunteer the same bounty that has been paid to those now organized into companies.
