The Jones Light Infantry. This is the title of a new company, call-ed for Mr. Geo. B. Jones, merchant, of Water street, now being recruited for the war, by authority of the Governor, by Capt. J. H. McElwain and Lieut. Will T. Wiley. Capt. McElwain has seen thirteen months service as a private in the Reserve Corps, and besides his compe-tency as an officer, is known by many of our citizens as a man of high character. Lieut. Wiley is a very worthy young man and has been in the employ of Messrs. J R. Reed & Co., jewelers, Fifth street, for some four years. Those enlisting in this company will be entitled to all the bountics offered by the State and Government. The motio of the company is "War for Lice motio of the company in the state Eiberty," and the recruiting office is at No. 68 Fifth street, third story, over Reed's jewelry store. This is a splendid opportunity for young men to join a good
