Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely induced by the extensive sine and universal ropularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and uniscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachies and Bitters.

Boware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-beilied kega, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases, and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

From J. Neuton Brown. D. D., Editor of the Englopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrast of their ingredients and elicet; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit the believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in recard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker. Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper cests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by wident relief, and restoration to a, degree of ix months before, and had almost depaired of realing. I therefore thank God and my friend for Treeting me to the use of them.

GERMANTOWN, June 1, 1861.

Dr. C. M. JACKBON - Sir.—It gave me pleasure, woyears ago, to give you a certificate, textifying nat the German Bitters had done for me. I am ow perfectly cured of all those diseases your ledicine professes to cure, viz. Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, disease, of the kidneys, tc. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above-complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, and in most of the Grocery stores them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above diseases.

Respectfully.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir. While in Virginia, owing to the change of water. I was taken with a severe diarrhosa, which seemed incurable nather than the strength of the change of water. I was taken and which greatly weakened me. When we eached Martinsburg, I feared I should have to ome home; but noticing some of your Bitters in he store Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purhased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhosa was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades, who suffered in the same namner and from the same cause, with whom I stared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I supply of the Bitrin my knapsack. I would not be without it rits weight in gold, particularly on going into a mestone region.

ENTIRELY VEGETABLE! THE ANDREWS PATENT PIPE. Prove its incomparable superiority to any pipe now in use. It may be smoked without any deleterious or unpleasant effects, as the oil of to-bacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the tongue does not become furred or coated from inhaling its poisonous properties. The bowl is made of the finest Devonsinre clay, and gives to the to-bacco a peculiarly pleasant fragrance. The to-bacco around become moist, as in ordinary Pipes, because the drip beneath receives the saliva that insensibly escapes into the stem; hence the pipe never becomes offensively rank, and the breath of the smoker does not proclaim to every one he meets that he has been "indulging in a pipe."

When the bowl becomes clogged, or the drip beneath requires cleansing, the pipe may be taken spart by removing the rim. The clay bowl may at any time be re-tored to its original whiteness by burning in the fire, (first drying it theoroughly) or a new bowl may be procured of the dealer:

There, he said, placing his finger up-on the proof of the stranger's error. There, d've see ?" "Yes, it does say ten," replied the man and yet it seems to me there are eleven. I'm sure I always thought so." Doesn't it say ten?" inquired Mr. W., ducted to the little square room, accom-panied by the Bible. Before leaving him alone, Mr. W. felt it to be his duty to exhort him to spiritual things, and he did so most earnestly for ten or lifteen minutes. But he could not see that his words had made much impression, and he finally lef his guest, lamenting his obduracy and ig-

In the morning he came down, and meeting Mr. W., asked him if he would be so kind as to lend him a razor, that he might remove his heard, which did not give his tace a very attractive aspect. His request

"We will have prayers in about ten ninutes," said Mr. W., as he handed him the razor and shaving box.

He appeared and behaved with due proriety at family worship. After breakfast he thanked the farmer and his wife for their hospitality, and, departing, went on his journey.

Ten o clock came, but Mr. N. had not arrived. So Mr. and Mrs. W. started for the meeting-house, not doubting that they would find him there. But they were disappointed. A goodly number of people were inside the meeting house, and a goodly number outside, but the minister had not arrived. "Where is Mr. N.?" inquired a dozen voices, as a little crowd gathered around the farmer.

the tarmer.

"He has not come yet. Something has detained him. But I will look for him—indeed I fully expected to find him here."

The day was cold, and Mr. W., after becoming thoroughly chilled, concluded to go in and keep a look out for the minister from the window near which he usually sat. Others, from the same cause, followed his example, and the little meeting house was soon filled as one after another came dropping in. The farmer, who turned toward the door each time it was opened, was a little surprised to see his guest of the previous night enter and come along. the previous night enter, and come slowly down the aisle, looking from side to side as if searching for a vacant seat, very few of which were now left. Still advancing, he finally got within the little enclosed altar ascending to the pulpit, took off his old grey overcoat, and sat down.

By this time Mr. W. was at his side, and hed his band upon his error.

"You mustn't sit here. Come down, and I will show you a seat," said he, in an CLOSING OUT SALE OF excited tone. "Thank you," replied the man, in a composed voice; "It is comfortable here." And the man remained immovable.

Mr. W., feeling embarrassed, went down to get a brother official to assist him in making a forcible ejection of the man from the place he was desecrating. Immedistely upon his doing so, however, the man rose, and, standing up at the desk, opened the hymn-book. His voice thril of to the finger ends of brother W., as, is a distinct and impressive manner, he gave out the hymn beginning,

Help us to help each other, Lord, Each other's cross to hear: Let each his fr. endly sid afford, And feel a prother's care. The congregation rose after thestranger
