

The Union as it was. The Constitution as it is!

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 25, 1862.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S REPLY TO HORACE GREELEY.

Our readers are aware that Horace Greeley and his Tribune occupy the first place in the ranks of the abolitionists in the United States. They are nothing but abolition, furnishing material and radicalism for all the smaller concerns of the same persuasion throughout the country.

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

REPLY TO HORACE GREELEY.

The President's Policy.

The following letter comes to us through the regular Agency of the Associated Press—[Eds. N. Y. Trib.]

WASHINGTON, August 22, 1862. HON. HORACE GREELEY—Dear Sir: I have just received yours of the 17th addressed to myself, through the New York Tribune.

"If there be in it any statements or assumptions of facts which I may know to be erroneous, I do not and here cannot correct them."

"If there be any inferences which I may believe to be falsely drawn, I do not and here cannot argue against them."

"If there be any inferences which I may believe to be justly drawn, I will not dispute them."

"If there be any inferences which I may believe to be justly drawn, I will not dispute them."

"If there be any inferences which I may believe to be justly drawn, I will not dispute them."

Irishmen and the Draft.

In an excellent article on the "Draft," Rev. E. Farrell, addressing himself as follows to the Irish Catholics of Cincinnati and State:

"If you are drafted, go you must. We have heard of some foolish, some very foolish men, protesting that they would resist the draft. It is a child's play to let them try that game, and they will soon be brought to their proper senses."

"We have heard it said also, that some Irish citizens in the interior of the State, since being called upon to furnish names of persons, have declared that they would resist the draft. We do not believe it. There must be some mistake in the report."

"We have captured already her best built mercantile navy—and she dare not declare war. The capture of Canada will be the end of the British and of England can do nothing! And it is said that Irishmen will oppose a draft to us under the name of the British and American patriots and mothers and the Irish fathers and mothers who have fallen on the battle-field in defence of your rights."

Guerrilla Depredations.

ORDER REGARDING SURPRISE AND SURRENDER.

SURRENDER OF UNION TROOPS.

Seizure of Confederate Money.

MEMPHIS, August 23.—Thirteen hundred guerrillas, opposite Helena, burned a thousand bales of cotton, and committed other depredations, within the last few days.

It is reported that Gen. Hindman's army is going West from Little Rock, and that the people along the road are going with the army, taking their negroes and other movable property.

While Gen. Hovey's Division was returning to Helena, from Clarkston, four men were killed and several wounded by guerrillas. A large amount of property is said to have been destroyed by them.

A refugee from the South furnishes the following regarding Southern movements: Gen. Bragg was at Chattanooga; his move appears to be toward Nashville. The report that a portion of Bragg's force was at Grand Junction is unfounded. On Friday there were none there except a few stragglers.

NEGRO TROOPS.

A correspondent of the New York Times, writing from Hilton Head, South Carolina, says:

"In this Department the project of arming the negroes has met with marked success. The price of the white soldier has been falling, and the negro is being recruited to a hitherto unheard-of extent."

"The colored regiment was organized by volunteer non-commissioned officers of good character and steady habits, who accepted their appointments with alacrity, and with the understanding that they should be treated as equals with the white troops. They will regret more than any others the disbanding of the organization."

Another correspondent, writing from Washington, says:

"I have seen here, who have recently returned from Cuba, and who are now in the city, that the probability of losing the island to the rebels is not so great as is generally supposed. The names of several negro soldiers are freely mentioned who have distinguished themselves in the field, and whose names are being placed on the rolls of honor, however hopeless the victory."

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 23.—The following is an extract from a general order issued by Gen. Merrill, governing the movement of troops of this Division: "It is the policy of the Government to arm the negroes as auxiliaries to the white troops, and to give them the same pay and allowances as the white troops, and to treat them as equals in every respect."

INDIANAPOLIS, August 23.—A man named John W. Garrett, formerly a resident of this city, was arrested last night on a charge of having stolen a horse. He is now in the city jail, and is being held for trial.
