The only article I could find having any semblance to aught I ever possessed was the bottom of an oil cloth "carpet bag," with my initials painted in white letters thereon, lying in painted in white letters thereon, lying in a mud-hole near the wreck of an army ambulance. REQUIRES ONLY A TRIAL TO PEQUIRES ONLY A TRIAL TO prove its incomparable superiority to any pipe now in use. It may be smoked without, any detectrious or unpleasant effects, as the cil of tobacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the tongue does not become furred or coated from inhaling its poisonous properties. The bowl is made of the finest Devonshire clay, and gives to the tobacco a peculiarly pleasant fragrance. The tobacco cannot become moist, as in ordinary Pipes, because the drip beneath receives the sairva that insensibly escapes into the stem: hence the pipe never becomes offensively rank, and the breath of the smoker does not proclaim to every one ho meets that he has been "induling in a pipe."

When the bowl becomes cloyzed or the drip beneath requires desaning, the pipe may be taken apart by removing the rim. The clay bowl may at any time be ray to red, first drying it thoroughly) or a new bowl may be procured of the dealer.
