It appears from private accounts that the rebels crossed the Potomac river on Friday night and early yesterday morning, and thence marched to White Oak Springs within three miles of Frederick. They crossed both above and below Point of Rocks and did it in as speedy and quiet manner as possible. One of their first acts was to send a force to cut the telegraph wire and seize the bridge over the donocacy. The regiment guarding this joint evacuated their position on Friday. breat numbers of persons were leaving frederick all day yesterday and proceed-contains a lengthy and spicy editorial cen-curing Jeff Davis and his cabinet for the reet appointments of the clerks in Jews and Yankees, and accusing them of being spies and disloyal to the Confederacy. It recommends Jeff Davis to have them removed, and substitute men of acknowledged loyalty and merit, and that the appointments be made unbiased.

appointments be made unbiassed by any political influences or favoritism. The rebel Congress is still in session. Harrisburg, Sept. 7.—We understand arrangements are being made to forward to the entrance of Cumberland valley all the troops now here in camp, and other regiments from New York and the East that have arrived and are detained here for that purpose. If an attempt should be made to invade Pennsylvania a warm welcome will await them. welcome will await them.

welcome will await them.

Citizens organizing themselves into companies under the Governor's proclamation are required to clothe or equip themselves.

Arms will be promptly furnished upon application to Adjutant General Russell by the regularly elected Cantain, and not the regularly elected Captain, and not accessarily through the the Brigade Inspector. Captains will be required to give spector. Uaptains will be required to give bond or some good security for their safe seeping. Companies can be organized to number from thirty-two to ninety-eight rank and file. Companies and regiments thus organizing should drill constantly and cold themselves in randings to mass to nold themselves in readiness to march to the defense our border upon short notice.
The employees of the Pennsylvania Railcoad shops at this place, numbering over two hundred, marched in a body yesterday own nundred, marched in a body yesterday to the Capitol grounds for drill, and were addressed by the Governor. The Superintendent of the middle division of the road was in the ranks as a private. Companies and squads are drilling today in all our streets and public places.

all along the border of our State and is in constant communication with them. He has received intelligence that the rebels rossed the Potomac in force at or near Point of Rocks and now occupy Frederick, Md, Their pickets extend some miles to-wards Hagerstown. They possessed them-selves of all the shoes, clotning, &c., in the stores at Frederick, paying for the same in Confederate scrip. The telegraph constant remains at Hagerstown but says operator remains, at Hagerstewn but says ce cannot hold the office much longer. Searly all the Union men have left the town. Our people should awaken to the fact that invasion is imminute.

point evacuated their position on Friday. Great numbers of persons were leaving Frederick all day yesterday and proceeded towards Pennsylvania.

Accounts from Hagerstown say that many refugees from Virginia have arrived there.

The Star of this evening says: We hear that Acquia Creek has been entirely evacuated by our forces, everything being brought away from there. It could not possibly be of any use to the United States. We take it for granted that the temporary buildings, ratiroad arrangements, wharf, &c., constructed for our military purposes at that point have been rendered useiss. The Star also says:

We learn that the new troops are now in ments, by which means they will be effective soldiers much sooner than otherwise brigaded.
