ENTIRELY VEGETABLE

NO ALCOHOLIC PREPARATION!

A PURE TONIC MEDICINE.

DR HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED

GERMAN BITTERS

PREPARED BY

J R C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Penns.,

Will effectually cure

Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE,

Chronic, or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases Arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant imaginings of Evil, and great depression of spirits,

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) bons of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters: which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases, and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHEN YOU!

YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE!

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?

DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL!

DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NER VOUS NESS?

DO WANT ENERGY!

NO YOU WANT TO SLEEP WELL!

DO YOU WANT A BRISK AND VIGOROUS FEELING?

If you do use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

From the Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicine, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but, with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially Liver Complaint it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,

Eighth below Coats street, Phila., Dec. 24th.

From the Wife of ALDERMAN WUNDER, Germantown.

GERMANTOWN, June 1, 1861.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Sir—It gave me pleasure, two years ago, to give you a certificate, testifying that the German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly cured of all those diseases your medicine professes to cure, viz: Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, disease of the Kidneys, &c. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, and in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above diseases.

Respectfully, HANNAH WUNDER,
Main street, above Rittenhouse, Germantown, cau's.

JUST THE THING FOR THE SOLDIERS.

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtasked and diseased calth.

READ THE TESTIMONY FROM THE ARMY

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhœa, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhœa was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades, who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it a single weight in gold, particularly on going into a limestone region.

Yours, truly,
A. E. ALTEMUS,
Company H, Scott Legion.

SELECT TALE.

THE BURGLAR'S LEAP.

A REPORTER'SS TORY.

BY ANNA M. LAWSON.

[Concluded.]

The room was a large one, and was comfortably, even handsomely, furnished. I was amazed; for I did not expect to behold anything but the most squalid poverty.

What did it mean?

At a glance I took in the comfortable, even luxurious surroundings; and then my gaze became rivited on a terrible scene which was transpiring in the middle of the room.

A woman, still young in years, as I could readily see, and quite handsomely dressed, was lying prostrate upon her back, on the floor. Her dress was torn and bloody, her face and hands besmeared with gore, and her whole appearance violently deranged and disordered.

Bending over her was a rather handsome man who was probably thirty five years of age. He was well and fashionably dressed; and his whole appearance, save that it was now disordered by excitement, was quite gentlemany. His hands were bloody, and his apparel much disordered.

"I said the man was rather handsome—he was; but at the same time, he was quite as wicked-looking as he was handsome,—Never shall I forget the glance he darted at me as I tumbled into the room. It was the look of a fiend. His brilliant black eyes flashed like balls of burning fire, and in their gleaming depths was mirrored every dark crime in the blackened calender.

"The glaring devil was resting one knee on the woman's swelling bosom, and clasping her throat with his hands, till the power of utterance was almost taken from her.

"What do you want here?' hissed the man between his set teeth, and he looked as if he would kill me on the spot, if his hands were only free.

"The woman moaned, and tried to cry murder again, but she was too choked up to utter the word distinctly.

"The brute who had her down was really strangling her to death, and my blood boiled at the sight. The scene so excited me, too, that I did not think to look for help. In fact, I thought only of what was before me.

"Let go there, you villain!" I cried, springing at the fellow furiously.

"The rascal relaxed his hold of the woman to save himself from me; and he and I grappled toghether in a deadly grip.

"Holding each other at arms' length, we measured one anothers powers.

"The woman on the floor now began to breath freer, and show some signs of consciousness. In a few moments she staggered to her feet, and glanced around the room in a bewildered manner. Then her eyes fell upon us and her face brightened up.

"'Thank God, I am saved from death,' she cried, in cracked tones, as she seemed to realize the scene before her—'Philip'' she added, shaking her reddened hand—red with her own blood—at my writhing opponent. "Philip, true as I was to you, you would have killed me—and as sure as I live I'll give you up to justice.'

"'Still that wicked looking man and myself held each other at arms' length.

"'Do it if you dare!' hissed the villain, at the same time struggling to free himself from my grasp.

"'What has led to this scene, madam?' I demanded as well as I was able, for my opponent was a man of muscle, and was struggling hard to get the better of me.—Strong as I was myself, I doubted my power to hold him much longer.

"'The unfounded jealousy of that man—my husband!' was the woman's reply.

"'That man Philip!'

"'Devil that you are, breathe that name at your peril!' fiercely cried my antagonist.

"The woman had now somewhat recovered herself, and rising to her feet, she continued boldly and defiantly:

"'That man, I say, Philip Durney, the burglar!'

"The next moment she fled from the room, and I could hear the pit-a-pat of her feet descending the stairs.

"The man uttered a howl.

"'Philip Durney!' I repeated in complete amazement.

"The name of Phil Durney was notoriously famous. A more desperate, bloody-handed desperado, was nowhere to be found, and for a long time previous, hurculean efforts had been made to capture the bold, desperate, and successful burglar chief; for such he was known to be.

"'Yes, Phil Durney, curse you!' hissed the outlaw; "'Phil Durney, the burglar, desperado, and murderer! Now, hands off.'

"The desperate villain made a powerful wrench; but I am no child, and he did not escape me.

"Evidently the rascal had no weapons about him, or I should have fared worse. It was a Providence for me. His wife he had been beating to death with his fist.

"The last words of the burglar had hardly fallen from his lips when the clatter of feet was heard on the stairs, and, almost instantly afterward, three or four policemen rushed into the apartment.

"'Seize this man!' I quickly cried out. 'It is Durney, the burglar!'

"'We know it!' simultaneously exclaimed the officers, as they darted across the room.

"The robber's wife had sent them up, as it subsequently appeared.

"With a fearful oath, Durney again made an effort to escape me, and this time he was successful as he was sudden, my attention being somewhat drawn away to other objects.

"A few desperate bounds carried him out of the room. The policeman grabbed at him, but he tore away. At the head of the stairs, however, the experienced officers had placed a couple of their number, and the desperate burglar was defeated in his purpose.

"We followed the villain.

"Out off from the stairs, Durney dashed back into the dark hall, where, it appeared, there was a step-ladder leading to a trap, and out upon the roof. Quick as lightning, so to speak, he mounted the steps, threw open the trap, and dashed out upon the house.

"We followed as fast as we could, but, when we got out upon the roof, the burglar was two or three houses off, clambering from one building to another, like a cat.

"'Stop there, you villain, or I'll shoot you down!' cried one of the policemen.

"'Shoot if you dare!' was the contemptuous reply, followed by a derisive laugh.

"At this instant the burglar came to a division of six or eight feet between the houses. Catching himself upon the very edge, he drew back suddenly and gazed around. The moon was up now and we could see it all plainly.

"Retrace his steps he could not, without falling back into our hands, while on one side of him was the alley, not less than a dozen feet wide, and, on the other, the yards of the houses.

"A leap of six or eight feet, at a height of three stories, is no trifling matter; but the burglar's only alternative was capture.

"Meanwhile we were approaching the villain, though but slowly, for we had to be very cautious of our steps.

"'If he 'tempts to jump that, he'll save the hangman a job!' exclaimed one of the officers, as we stepped along.

"At that moment Durney darted back a few paces and involuntarily halted. The next moment, with a shout of defiance, he dashed wildly forward, and, almost at the same instant, we saw the desperate villain flying through the air.

"The leap was well made, and only fell short a very little; but that little cost the burglar his life. Madly catching at the opposite house, Durney missed his hold, and tumbled down, down, down! A curse of disappointment smote upon the air, and then for a moment all was still.

"The next instant we reached the edge of the roof, and peeped over the dizzy height. As we did so the body of the burglar struck the side-walk and was dashed into atoms.

"As soon as possible we descended and gathered up the remains, which, the next day, were interred in the paupers' burying ground. Since then nothing has been heard or seen of the burglar's wife.

"Something of this appeared in the papers, but nothing like the full particulars, which I have here given you, and which, you must admit, form somewhat of an adventure."

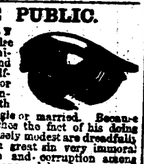
TO THE PUBLIC.



ESPECIALLY the ignorant and false Modest of all denominations, treat secret and delicate disorders, self-abuse and diseases or tuations common and incident to youths of both sexes, and adults, single or married. Secure Dr. BRANSTRUP publishes the fact of his doing so, the ignorant and falsely modest are dreadfully shocked, and think it a great sin very immoral and for contamination and corruption among their wives, promising sons and daughters. Their family physician should be cautious to keep them in ignorance that they do the same as Dr. BRANSTRUP, (except publishing) but a lucrative practice might be lost to them among stupid falsely modest and presumptuous families, born and raised in ignorance, sprung up as mushrooms and who compare society, intelligence, sense, &c., to dollars and cents, mysteriously, meanly orthodoxers. It is to publicity, however, that numerous parents and guardians are thankful that their sons, daughters and wards, previously feeble sickly and of delicate condition and appearance have been restored to health and vigor by DR BRANSTRUP, besides many before and after marriage through him have been saved much suffering, anxiety, mortification, &c. Spermatorrhœa or nocturnal emissions, can be completely cured in a very short space of time by his new remedies, which are peculiarly his own. They are compounds from the Vegetable Kingdom, having seen the fallacy of the Mercurial treatment, he has abandoned it and substituted the vegitable. Female diseases are treated with marked success—having had over forty years (40) experience in their treatment in hospitals of both the Old World and in the United States; leads him to say—to all with a fair trial, health and happiness will again bloom upon the now pale cheek. Life no longer with mortebands and quacks but come and be cured. Consumption and all of its kindred diseases, of which so many annually fill our countries, can now be relieved, providing they attend to it in time. Full particulars can be had of my treatment by procuring a copy of the Medical Adviser, which is given gratis to all that apply. Having the advantage of over forty years experience and observation, consequently, he has superior skill in the treatment of special diseases, and who is daily consulted by the professional as well as recommended by respectable citizens, publishers, proprietors of hotels, &c. A FRIEND IN NEED. TRY IT—DR. SWEETS INFALLIBLE LINIMENT is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the great bone setter, and has been used in his practice for the last twenty years with the most astonishing success. As an external remedy it is without a rival and will alleviate pain more speedily than any other preparation. For all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders it is truly infallible, and as a cure for Sore, Wounds, Sprains, Bruises, &c., its soothing, healing, and powerful strengthening properties, excite the most wonder and astonishment of all who have ever given it a trial. Over four hundred certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years, attest this fact.
