THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 11.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE.

Corcoran Brigade.

At a meeting of the Finance Committee of the Pittsburgh Board of Finance, held at the banking house of A. M. Tigue.

Suspension of Business.

The call of the Governor has given an impetus to the organization of a militia here, and meetings are being held in every part of the city.

Teach Them to Shoot.

As we are always willing to accept the results of the experience of others, we transfer the following communication from the Philadelphia Press.

Our Enrollment.

As a compositor's blunder made our recapitulation of men in service yesterday ridiculous we re-establish it, corrected, to-day.

The Oil Trade.

The Oil City Register says: "The business has been fair this week. The loadings of the river have been very large."

U. S. Defenders.

T. J. Moran has been authorized by the Committee on Military Affairs to raise a company for the Corcoran Regiment.
