DR C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Penna.,

DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE,

Chronic, or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases Arising from a Disordered — Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant imaginings of Evil, and great depression of spirits,

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Billious Fever, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in pictoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases, and leaves the disappointed sufferers in despair.

YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHEN YOU!

YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE!

DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?

DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL!

DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NER VOUS DEBILITY?

DO YOU WANT ENERGY!

DO YOU WANT TO SLEEP WELL!

DO YOU WANT A BRISK AND VIGOROUS FEELING!

If you do use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for ix months before, and had almost despaired of reaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for irnishing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

From the Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicine, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially Liver Complaint it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD.

Eighth below Coats street, Phila., Dec. 24th.

From the Wife of ALDERMAN WUNDER, Germantown.

GERMANTOWN, June 1, 1861.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Sir:—It gave me pleasure, two years ago, to give you a certificate, testifying that the German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly cured of all those diseases your medicine professes to cure, viz: Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, disease of the Kidneys, &c. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, and in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above diseases.

Respectfully, HANNAH WUNDER.

Main street, above Rittenhouse, Germantown, penn'a.

JUST THE THING FOR THE SOLDIERS.

Will build up the constitution, and give health and strength to an overtasked and diseased ealth.

READ THE TESTIMONY FROM THE ARMY

PHILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhœa, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we reached Martinsburg, I feared I should have to come home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purchased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhœa was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades, who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legion, and shall certainly take a supply of the Bitters in my knapsack. I would not be without it for its weight in gold, particularly on going into a mountainous region.

Yours, truly, A. E. ALTEMUS,

Company H, Scott Legion.

OPINIONS OF JUDGE DOUGLAS.

Republicans of our day, now that he is no more, profess implict faith in the opinions of the late Hon. Stephen A. Douglas. We call to the witness stand the living history of that tried patriot and eminent statesman. In the United States Senate, upon the 3d of January, 1861, Judge Douglas said:

"I address the inquiry to the Republicans alone, for the reason that in the committee of thirteen, a few days ago, every member from the South, including those from the cotton States (Messrs. Toombs and Davis) expressed their readiness to accept the proposition of my venerable friend from Kentucky (Mr. Crittenden) as a FINAL SETTLEMENT of the controversy, if tendered and sustained by Republican members. HENCE THE SOLE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR DISAGREEMENT, THE ONLY DIFFICULTY IN THE WAY OF AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT IS WITH THE REPUBLICAN PARTY."

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

Extracts from the Constitution.

Which are especially applicable to the Times.

Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act or a confession in open Court.

The Congress will have power to declare the punishment of treason, but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forefeiture except during the life of the person attainted.

No person held to service or labor in one State, under the laws thereof escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other State; nor any State be formed by the junction of two or more States without the consent of the Legislature of the States concerned, as well as of the Congress.

This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land.

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and all members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judical officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support this Constitution.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject, for the same offense, to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property without due course of law, nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted by the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defence.

This enumeration, in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

"Constitutional liberty must never permit power, AND LEAST OF ALL EXECUTIVE POWER, to overstep its prescribed limits, EITHER IN PEACE OR WAR, though benevolent motives and patriotic intents come along with it. The spirit of liberty is jealous of encroachments, JEALOUS OF POWER, jealous of men. AT ALL TIMES it demands checks; it insists on securities; it entrenches itself behind defences and fortifies itself from the assaults of ambition and passion."—WEBSTER.

Hannibal Hamlin, in a public speech in Maine, within a few weeks, said to the effect that whoever was opposed to Abolitionism deserved to be hung.

The Republican Party before the Election.

The following is the sixth of the series of resolutions composing the platform of the Republican party, as adopted at the Chicago Convention, in 1860.

Resolved, THAT THE PEOPLE JUSTLY VIEW WITH ALARM THE RECKLESS EXTRAVAGANCE WHICH PERVADES EVERY DEPARTMENT OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT; THAT A RETURN TO RIGID ECONOMY AND ACCOUNTABILITY IS INDISPENSABLE TO ARREST THE SYSTEMATIC PLUNDER OF THE PUBLIC TREASURY BY FAVORED PARTIZANS—WHILST THE RECENT STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS OF FRAUDS AND CORRUPTIONS AT THE FEDERAL METROPOLIS SHOW THAT AN ENTIRE CHANGE OF ADMINISTRATION IS IMPERATIVELY DEMANDED."

The Republican Party after the Election.

The following confession was made by the Hon. Mr. Dawes, a Republican member of Congress from Massachusetts, on the 25th of April, in which he exposed the corruptions of Lincoln's Administration:

"The gentlemen must remember that in the first year of a Republican Administration, which came into power upon professions of Reform and Entrenchment, there is indubitable evidence abroad in the land that somebody has plundered the public treasury well nigh in that single year as much as the entire current yearly expense of the Government during the Administration which the people hurled from power because of its corruption."

Warning of Henry Clay.

Extract from his Speech in the U. S. Senate, February 8, 1839.

Abolition should no longer be regarded as an imaginary danger. The Abolitionists, let me suppose, succeed in their present aim of uniting the inhabitants of the free States as one man against the inhabitants of the slave States. Union on one side will beget union on the other. And this process of reciprocal consolidation will be attended with all the violent prejudices, embittered and implacable animosities which ever degraded or deformed human nature. A virtual dissolution of the Union will have taken place while the forms of its existence remain.

From Missouri.

The condition of affairs in this State is expressed in one word—precarious! A very general impression prevails that a large Rebel army independent of Hindman and Holmes (who is at little Rock) is rapidly organizing somewhere between Fort Smith and Texas for the invasion of Missouri. For many months vague rumors have been from time to time received relative to an advance on this State by rebels commanded by Gen. H. Sibley, the same individual who made the raid with his Texan hordes into New Mexico as far as Santa Fe, and then retreated. Sibley has considerable artillery at his disposal, and the rumors alluded to have invariably stated that Sibley had been ordered to invade Missouri by Jeff. Davis.

Nothing definite is really known regarding Sibley's present whereabouts, unless officers at headquarters have received the information lately. Nothing is feared at present from Hindman or Holmes. They have all they can conveniently take care of in watching Gen Steele, who commands Curtis' splendid army in the vicinity of Helena. If the projected invasion from Texas is not an accomplished fact within the next six weeks, the day when it might have succeeded will probably have passed. Although the interior is full of rebels ready to spring to arms as guerillas or Southern soldiers at a moments call, that game is not really so dangerous as it used to be. The next six weeks are of immense importance to this State. At the expiration of that time the State Militia will be organized, armed and equipped in nearly every county in the State.—When this is done, and competent officers appointed to command, guerrilla outbreaks may be, and probably will be, promptly suppressed.
