APPALLING DISASTER. A PUBLIC MEETING.

Our local column this morning cor tains an account of a most terrible disaster which occurred yesterday at the Allegheny Arsenal, and which sent some eighty human beings to untimely deaths. It will also be seen by an advertisement. in another department of our paper, that visitation. Let there be measures immedistely taken to relieve the sorrowing ones upon whom this appalling calamity has fallen. Many of the departeu were the sole support of their respective families, and when we consider that they were, when ushered into sternity engaged in the service of their country the condition of their surviving families appeals to us with tenfold nity and em phasis. Our citizens now, one and all, have the highest and most imperative Christian duty to perform : the burial of the dead, the comforting of the afflicted. and the aiding by our substance the destitute families of the departed, are duties which every one will fully and liberally discharge. THE MALICE OF ABOLITION-

The malicious glee of Abolitionists whenever the army, under McClellan. meets with a reverse, and the absolute mortification exhibited by them whenever would sarrifice his army. Sheridan Knowles, in his historical tragedy of Virginius, shows how the Decemvirs had Dentatus, one of their ablest Generals, while historical tragedy of the Roman people; abolition compirators have labored more supprisors have labored increasantly to affect McClellan's downfall, because he will not consent to their vile purposes of negro emancipation. This is his fault and his only one, and for it he is hated with a depth of malignity, characteristic of the fantic and the patroon. No generous nature could hate, as abolitionism hate a McClellan; it is as deadly as poison and as cowardly as the assassian. The government, when it invited him to take command of the army in the East, an anounced to him and to the country the months of the fantic proposed to him and to the country the months of the facts the facts are the country, and the distance of the Units of the fantic effort to previous darks of the facts of the f command of the army in the East, announced to him and to the country the purposes of the contest. They were to put down rebellion and restore the Union. McClellan has kept these objects steadily in view; they are the polar star by which he is directed, and their accomplishment are the end and aim of his ambition. On the ainth of last month he again reminded his soldiers of their mission in reminded his soldiers of their mission in an admitable order, in which he said:

"The General commanding" said he, "takes this occasion to remind the officers and soldiers of the army that we are entered in supporting the constitution and proposition that was ever before Congress. I believe in my heart to-day, that it would then the late Major General Jesse L. Reno.

Every little disaster that occurred while he was Major General, no matter where it happened, he was held responsible for, and who acted in obedience to his command.

This is the course of our genuine Abclitionists towards the leading officer in the service. The Chicago Post alluding to these reptiles, a large number of whom are to be found in its neighborhood. enotes them as follows:

Jesse L. Reno was born in Virginia about the year 1826, and was consequently in the very prime of life, when his name was added to the already too long list of victims of this disastrous rebellion. He entered the West Point Military Academy in 1842, and after four years' patient au the evening, we are regaled with a variety of airs that would amaze a mere amateur, and extort admiration from the most blase of compositors. THE AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY give High Coir'd Pinids for Indies' Drosser notice, that they have lately is-ued a new style of Watch, expressly designed for Soldiers and others who desire a good watch at a moderate price. These watches are intended to displace the werthless, cheap watches of British and swiss manufac ture, with which the country is flooded, and which were never expected to keep time when they were made, being refuse manutectures, sent to this country, because un-aleable at home, and used hereonly for jockeying and swindling purposes. We offer to sell our Watch, which is of THE MOST SUBSTANTIAL MANUFACTURE, AN ACCURATE AND DURABLE TIMER: EPER. and in Sterling Silver Cases, Hunting pattern at as low a price as is asked for the trashy Ancres facture, and is one of our tra ie marks. Sold by all respectable Jewelers in the loyal States, Wholesale orders should be addressed to
