Substitutes in Connecticut.

Don't be in too great a hurry to obtain a substitute. Plenty are on hand ready to go. They can be had now at almost any price, and are coming in so rapidly that the supply will shortly more than equal the demand. We doubt not that they will shortly be obtained for $50. Not so many of the rich men were drafted as these men expected; consequently instead of the high price they expected to obtain, they will have to take even less than the bounties which have been offered.—Hartford Courant, Sept. 14.

A Patriot.

Bishop Timon, of Buffalo, is noted for his patriotism. Since the war commenced he has been indefatigable in procuring enlistments. On Saturday last he published a card addressed to the Catholics of Buffalo, urging them to do all in their power to supply the wants of our sick and wounded soldiers by contributions of lint, &c.,

Guilty of Treason.

Miss Ludmilla Von Assing, the editress of "Varnhagen von Enss's Diaries," has been pronounced, by the Criminal Court of Berlin, on account of certain passages contained in the fourth volume of this work, guilty of high treason. As she did not appear before her judges, she was condemned, in contumaciam, to eight months' imprisonment, and a year's loss of her "civil honorary rights."

Suppression of the Slave Trade.

The British consul at New York, Mr. Archibald, has been appointed, by her Majesty's government, judge of the mixed commission court, established under the recent treaty with the United States, for the suppression of the slave trade, which is to hold its sittings there. The office of the arbitrator, under the same treaty, has been conferred upon Mr. William Ryder, who has been transferred from Havana, where he has held the corresponding post, under the treaty of 1835, between Spain and England.

How to avoid the Draft.

The Philadelphia Press says that an adroit speculator of that city advertised that for the sum of one dollar he would communicate an infallible method by which any one could avoid the draft.—He received as many as four hundred letters, within twelve hours, each enclosing the stipulated dollar, which the sharper very quietly pocketed. The answer was the same to all—VOLUNTEER.
