From J. Newton Brown. D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects! I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benofit he believes limself to have received from any simple preparation in the bope that he may thus concribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced acainst them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper cests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of ix menths before, and had almost depaired of readily and mental vigor which I had not left for ix menths before, and had almost depaired of for irecting me to the use of them.

Dr. Jackson Dran S.R.:—I have been fruently requested to connect my name with compendations of different kinds of medicine, but egarding the ractics as out of my appropriate phere, have all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially liver Compiantit is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours very reopectfully.

nat the German Bitters had done for me I am ow perfectly cured of all those diseases your redicine professes to cure, viz. Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, disease of the Kidneys, tc. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has without nestation, nave recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, and in most of the Grocery store here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove them to be satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above diseases.

Dr. C. M. Jaceson—Dear Sir: While in Virginia, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhea. which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me When we cached Martinsburg. I feared I should have to one home; but noticing some of your Bitters in he store Mr. H. II. Price, in that town. I purhased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhea was quickly checked, and I expreienced no return of it. A number of my comrades, who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the sear of war with the Legon, and shall certainly take a supply of the Bitres in my knapsack. I would not be without it r its weight in gold, particularly on going into a mestone region.

"Weil," said deacon, apolegetically is we've been young ourselves, Betsey!"

How Effic's heart beat as she removed the wrappings of the small white box, by the dim light of one tallow candle, on her little pink draped toilet table. How kind it was of Jonathan to remember—how it was of Jonathan to remember it was of Jonathan to remember—how pleasant it was to be thought of. She opened the box, with cherry lips half apart, and her cheeks flushed with bright expectation. The box was divided into small com partments. Effic had never seen anything like it before! and she gazed in mute wonder, that was soon changed into indignant "Good gracious! what does this mean?"

There were tiny pink pastilles labelled 'rouge' and a cup of white powder, marked 'pearl,' and a bottle ticketed 'Cream of Roses, to be applied every night and morning,' and a crimson, paste like cosmetic in a vial, with a suspicious little Common Burner for Carbon Oil is now cosmetic in a vial, with a suspicious little Common Burner many advantages over the combustion. Effiegot no further in her investigation, but dashed the box angrily upon the floor, and burst into a storm of passionate tears, did Jonathan mean to insult her? Did he suppose she had need of these vile drugs and poisinons cosmetics? She would never speak to him again—no, never!

Poor Effie, she sobbed herself to sleep, with her head resting on the toilet table, and her pillow, one rounded arm; and so her mother found her, an hour or two later, when mother like she came up on tip the to see "what ailed the child."
