FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 3.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC State Central Committee.—The Democratic State Central Committee will meet at their Rooms No. 423 Walnut street, Philadelphia, on TUESDAY, October 7th, 1862, at 12 o'clock, M., and sit over Wednesday.

A full attendance of the Committee is earnestly requested. F. W. HUBLEY,
Chairman State Central Committee.

ATTEST—
GEORGE DE B. KEIM,
ROBERT CLARK.

Gov. Morton.—Meeting at Concert Hall.

It was ascertained yesterday morning, by some of our prominent citizens, that Governor Morton, of Indiana, was to pass through this city on his way to Washington City, and they accordingly entered into a consultation as to the best course to pursue, which resulted in a dispatch to Hon. Thos. M. Howe, requesting him to remain over and address the people in the interest of the country. The dispatch was answered in the affirmative, and arrangements were at once perfected for a meeting, which will be held at Concert Hall this evening. Governor Morton will be present and make a speech. No doubt the hall will be crowded to its utmost capacity.

Pennsylvania Minute Men.

A meeting of the commissioned officers of eight companies of the 11th regiment Pennsylvania Minute Men was held on Wednesday afternoon, at the Board of Trade Rooms, for the purpose of completing their organization and placing the regiment upon a war footing for immediate service in case of exigency. All the officers reported that there would be little difficulty in filling up the ranks of each company to the minimum standard—83 rank and file. Committees were appointed to ascertain the disposition of the community to sustain this organization by contributing the necessary means to uniform such as others may feel needful to incur the expense.

Another meeting to receive the reports of committees, &c., will be held at the same place on Monday, at 10 o'clock A. M.

We trust that the patriotism of our citizens will equip this regiment in such a manner as to make it desirable to retain. Two other companies could easily be raised, and, properly armed and equipped, and with a little drilling, we should soon have a reliable defense in case of emergency.

North Sewickley Academy.

This well established school, located about eight miles west of New Brighton and fifteen miles South of New Castle, easily accessible from the surrounding towns and this city, in a very healthy country, enjoys an enviable reputation and offers excellent facilities for a thorough intellectual and moral education. The terms are reasonable and we take pleasure in recommending to the public. Rev. H. Webster, the principal, who also has the privilege of referring to the following gentlemen: L. O. Reed, Geo. P. Gilmore, Rev. James R. C. Mueller, Robert Wood, Alex. Holdin, E. Barnhill, Jr., John Bookman, David Sands, Geo. Wm. Robinson, Jas. Thomson and Wm. Wightman, Esqs., Pittsburgh. Circulars can be obtained at the book store of Messrs. Allen & Wood, Wood street.

Pittsburgh Industrial School.

The ladies who have taught in this institution heretofore are to meet at half past three in the afternoon of to-day, in the church building, corner Diamond street and Pennsylvania avenue, to elect officers for the ensuing year and make necessary arrangements for reopening the school this season.

Claimed to be an Alien.

Owen Clarke, a blacksmith, was arrested, yesterday and held to bail in the sum of $1,000, to answer before the Mayor today. He is charged with obtaining evidence by swearing he was an alien, while it is asserted that his father was naturalized and that he has been a regular voter in the First Ward. The examination will probably develope some facts.

Important Decision.

It has just been decided in the Cleveland Courts that where a man signs an enlistment roll he becomes liable from that moment to military service, and can be held for the full term for which he enlisted. Similar decisions have been made in other States.

Gone Home.

Capt. L. E. Smith, one of the officers recently released from prison at Richmond, passed through the city on Wednesday, en route for his home in Washington county. He has a furlough for twenty days, at the end of which he will return to Washington city, for exchange.

A Word to the Wise

Is said to be sufficient. If so we would advise all such, and others, if they are in want of anything in the Hat or Cap line to go to Fleming's, 139 Wood street, where a very large and beautiful stock of such goods are always kept. The very latest styles and best quality of all articles in his line will be found in great variety at this old established, and will be sold at wholesale or retail, as usual, at low prices.

Theological Seminary.

Since the resignation of Dr. Plumer four students at the Western Theological Seminary, one from the Zanesville Presbytery, one from Allegheny Presbytery, one from Beaver Presbytery, and one from St. Clairsville Presbytery, all of the senior class, have asked and obtained their dismission to other Seminaries because as is alleged, they disapproved of the action of the Directors. Three went to Chicago and one to Princeton.

Trotting Match for $600.

The sporting community will be glad to learn that a match has been arranged between the celebrated stallion "Oakland" and the brown gelding "Dixie" to come off to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Collins' Park. An exciting time may be expected.

Enrollment and Exemptions—Wide of the Mark.

We do not often undertake to correct what are manifestly blunders by our contemporaries, but justice to a portion of the people of the county, and especially those of Allegheny City, compels us to correct the arithmetic of our neighbor of the Gazette, in a tabular statement published yesterday, purporting to show the per centage of exemptions in the several wards of the cities. We give the table as published by the Gazette, adding, in the last column, a calculation of our own, which, though not precise, is as correct as a reduction to small fractions will permit:

PITTSBURGH.

Ward—	Enrolled	Ex'pt	Gazette.	Per Ct.	Post do.
1	944	110	8	64 110	11 8-9
2	772	142	5	151 71	18 4-7
3	2,165	291	7	128 291	14 1-4
4	1,057	105	9	72 105	10 1-4
5	1,903	202	9	135 202	10 3-7
6	1,846	275	7	141 275	13 1-16
7	52	36	1	43 36	1 2-5
8	1,073	99	11	83 99	8 2-5
9	1,060	165	6	79 165	15 2-5
Total	11,188	1 396	8	1-5	12 1-5

ALLEGHENY.

1	905	42	21	23 42	4 2-3
2	1,048	109	10	58 109	9 1-3
3	1,764	62	28	2 38	3 4-7
4	1,080	217	15	69 147	7 2-5
Total	5,799	387	14	1-2	6 4-5

It will be seen that these figures entirely reverse the result reached by the Gazette. Instead of the 2d Ward, Pittsburgh, having the smallest percentage of exempts, it has the largest, and the 1st Ward, Allegheny has the smallest percentage instead of the largest, as shown by the Gazette.—The division was wrong made: if they had added two ciphers to the number of exempts and divided by the enrollment a correct result would have been attained. They should remember this rule hereafter, or keep an arithmetic on hand.

Following out the correct results we find that the average percentage over both cities is 10, exempt in 100 enrolled. This would give 3,340 on the county enrollment of 37,000 and leave about 33,000 for draft from, instead of 33,000 as stated by the Gazette. For we must remember there are something like 9,000 men from Allegheny county in the service, whose names appear in the enrollment.

Death of Wm. J. Howard, Esq.

Yesterday morning another of our most respected and influential citizens, Wm. J. Howard, Esq., passed from this life. He died at his residence on Third street, after several weeks' suffering, from a tumor in his stomach. Mr. Howard was an old resident of the city and a man of sterling character and substance—always regarded as a good citizen, and enjoying the confidence of the whole community. He was long President of the Board of Guardians of the Poor and was Mayor of the city for one term, in 1845, we believe. He leaves behind him an enviable reputation as a business man having been senior partner in the firm of Howard & Rodgers] and citizen. He will be regretted by a large family, all of whom are highly respected, and many warm friends.

Meeting at Southfield, Fayette County.

One of the largest and most encouraging Democratic meetings of the campaign was held at Southfield, Fayette county, on Saturday last. [illegible] was called to order by [illegible] President. Hon. [illegible] Brazelton, Vice Presidents, Wm. Miller, Reed Rose, H. Aaron Ross, Abram H. Smith, Samuel A. Roach and Thomas Williams, Esqs.; Secretaries, Hunsicker Humphreys, Esq., Samuel N. Smith and D. Sturgeon Gordon, Esq. The meeting was addressed by Samuel Kelso, Esq., Hon. Samuel A. Gilmore and Col. T. B. Searight, in able, appropriate and patriotic speeches, which were listened to with the strictest attention, and received with the most enthusiastic cheering and evidence of approval. The address of Judge Gilmore, one of the best speakers in this section of the State, is spoken of as a masterly effort, eloquent and patriotic, full of well told truths and powerful argument. He was listened to with great interest and frequently cheered during its delivery and at the conclusion.

Great Bill for a Benefit.

Mr. Joseph Proctor takes a farewell benefit at the Theatre this evening, when a splendid bill is offered. It embraces the new Indian drama of "Antahkinaho, or the Lion of the Forest," and "William Tell, the Hero of Switzerland," both attractive pieces. They must with Mr. Proctor's popularity draw a large and full audience.

Robbery and Arson.

One night last week, the store of Wm. Bryson, Jr., at Scott's Mill, in Independence township, Washington county, was broken open and robbed of almost its entire contents, after which it was set on fire, destroying the building with all its contents, including books, accounts, showbills, leather, &c. The total loss was about $8,000. No insurance.

Col. R. Biddle Roberts.

Gen. Meade having taken command of Hooker's corps, the first division of the Pennsylvania Reserves is in command of General Seymour, and Col. Roberts, of the First Pennsylvania, commands Gen. Seymour's brigade. The corps remains quiet in the camp occupied after the battle, and still forms the right wing of McClellan's army.

Returned.

Capt. G. W. Dawson, of the 62d regiment, who has been exchanged, left last evening to join his regiment. He has been here for some time on parole.

City Mortality.

Dr. A. G. McCandless, Physician to the Board of Health, reports the interments as follows, from September 21st to September 28th, 1862:

WASHINGTON, October 2.

Address to the President of the United States, adopted at a meeting of Governors of the loyal States, held to take measures for the more active support of the Government, at Altoona, Penna., on the twenty-second day of September, eighteen hundred and sixty two.

After nearly one year and a half spent in contest with an armed and [illegible] rebellion against the National Government of the United States, the loyal purpose of the loyal States and people continues and must always remain as they were at its origin, namely: to preserve and perpetuate the authority of the Government and the life of the Nation. No [illegible] this work [illegible] hopes and aims of our [illegible] fail to be permanent [illegible] our relations to the President of the United States, the [illegible] support hereafter, as heretofore on the [illegible] exercise of the functions of his great office. We [illegible] the Chief Executive [illegible] to Chief Magistrate of the United States [illegible] Congress [illegible] Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy [illegible] as well as [illegible] Congress [illegible] of our form of [illegible] the people [illegible] from the [illegible] rule of respon[illegible] lawful and proper [illegible] Executive [illegible] We [illegible] the Union must [illegible] the Constitution [illegible] and the [illegible] Government [illegible] in peace
