THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 16.

TRYING under a heavy growth of green clover has long been practised by our most succesful farmers, as the surest means of securing a good crop of winter wheat. It has been suggested by a writer in the Germantown Telegraph that the wheat crop should be third in rotation: First, corn, with a generous application of manure; second oats or spring wheat seeding with clover—say eight or ten quarts to the acre—and top-dressing the clover, as soon as up, with plaster, and again the following spring. From four to six weeks before seeding time, turn this clover under, and you have the soil properly manured for a crop of wheat. The writer does not state whether he would permit stock pastured on the clover during the summer or not, but it is the practice of farmers generally to turn cattle into clover after it has nearly attained its growth, with the belief that, aside from the profit of the pasture, the little that they will eat is more than made up in the manure added. But it is questionable whether, in some cases, the peculiar benefits supposed to accrue from the turning in of green clover, are not in a measure lost by too close feeding.—N. Y. Argus.

ON Monday afternoon, a couple of ardent lovers were sadly disappointed at White Plains, N. Y., whither they had gone to be made "made one." They gave their names as Lewis Thompson and Rosanna Smith—a black man and a white woman. Neither of the Justices of the Peace would marry them, nor could they find a clergyman willing to be a party to their plans, and when the affair became noised about, indignation rose so high that tar and feathers were talked about and they beat a retreat.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Mark Lane Express says that town-sewage takes the highest rank as a manure for grass land. Next to this the sewage from the privy, house-wash, soap-suds, &c., from the farmhouse, added to this the rain water, after it has absorbed all the soluble matter, from the manure in the barn yard.

The Brockport (Monroe Co., N. Y.,) Republic says that considering the short supply of help, the farmers in this section have sown a wide breadth of winter wheat and it looks very fine.

Cresson Springs, Cambria Co., Pa.

THIS DELIGHTFUL AND POPULAR place of summer resort, located directly on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, on the summit of the Allegheny Mountains, 2,300 feet above the level of the ocean, will be open for guests from the 10th of June till the 10th of October. Since last season the grounds have been greatly improved and beautified, and a number of Cottages have been erected for the accommodation of families, rendering Cresson one of the most romantic and attractive places in the State. The furniture has been thoroughly renovated. The seeker of pleasure, and the sufferer from heat and disease, will find attractions here in a first-class Livery Stable, Billiard Tables, Ten-pin Alleys, Baths, etc., together with the purest air and water, and the most magnificent mountain scenery to be found in the country.
