Our Subsistence Committee have re-ceived a letter from Mr. L. Durkee, York, Pa.; making an appeal for shirts, stockings; &c., for the suffering soldiers lying in the hospital there. He says: ''Your kind offers of assistance make it an easy matter to make known to you the necessities of the sick and wounded in our hospitals although your committee have so largely contributed to their comfort hereand woolen stockings, and warm wrappers and comforts are also often called for. Indeed, the demand has been so great that we find our supply exhausted, and only the most needy furnished. It is painful to tive speculative movement in petroleum oil, in this market, has been going on for at all for the want of such articles, and in several days past. The inquiry is princi at all for the want of such articles, and in our anxiety to make all comfortable as early as possible, we apply first to you, for from no source have we received so liberally and promptly. A motion was made to throw out the entire vote of that precinct.

John J. Case, Esq., Republican Inspector, made a statement to the effect that, so far as he was aware, the election had been conducted fairly. But when the votes came to be counted, the sum total for Auditor General was 691, while the total number of names enrolled by the clerks was only 667—a difference of 24. On some offices a larger discrepancy was shown. How this happened he was unable to say, unless the clerks had omitted to record all the names as called out. The Election Board got along very harmoni-
