Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and uncerupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious aruss, and christened Tonics, Stomachies and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-beilied fields, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, tightend of curing only agravates diseases, and leave the disappointed sufferers in despir.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects. I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit helpelieves himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced sgainst them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, lam indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker. Eaq., for the removal of this prejudice by propercests, and for encouragement to try them, when salfering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by swident relief, and restoration to a degree of continued methods.

wrident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not telt for ix months before, and had almost depaired of remaining. It herefore thank God and my friend for threeting me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861. From the Rev. Joseph H. Kennard Pustor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

Dr. Jackson-Drar S. R.—I have been fruently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicine, but egardiog the vactics as out of my appropriate phere, I have n all cases declined; but with a blear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefuness of Dr. Iloofland's German Bitters, I depart from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially Liver Complaint it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours very reopectfully.

OREMANTOWN, June 1, 1861.

Dr. C. M. Jackson - Sir:—It gave me pleasure, woyears ago, to give you a certificate, testifying nat the German Bitters had done for me. I am ow perfectly cured of all those diseases your ledicine professes to cure, viz. Dyspepsia, Chronie and Nervpus debility, disease of the Ridneys, tc. The powerful influence tiercrits upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Gormantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, land in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and is will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity incre than twenty cases of the above Jiseases.

THE TESTIMONY FROM THE ARMY PRILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862. PRILADELPHIA, August 12, 1862.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir: While in Vird, a, owing to the change of water, I was taken with a severe diarrhea, which seemed incurable, and which greatly weakened me. When we enched Martinsburg, I feared I should have to ome home; but noticing some of your Bitters in the store M. III. H. Price, in that town, I purhased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhea was quickly checked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades, who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to return to the seat of war with the Legon, and shall certainly take a supply of the Bitris in my knapsack. I would not be without it r its weighting gold, particularly on going into a mestone region.

Yours, truly, A.E. ALTEMUS, Company H. Scott Legion BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

we falled? What is the cause of it? Jest as soon as we kin find out the reason of our failure, we shall know what to do to remedy it." "Now," ses the Kernel, "I want every one of you to give me your frank, blunt opinion as to the reason. First, I will call on Mr. Seward." Seward got up, tookin' as pale as a sheet, and ses he, "Wal, it ain't my fault. I ve paid no attenshin to the war, but I sheet, and ses he, "Wal, it ain't my fault. I've paid no attenshin to the war, but have had my hands full in keepin' furrin nashins from interferin,' and I've succeeded; but ef I should give my opinion of the cause of the failure of our efforts to restore the Union, I would say it was owin' entirely to the ultra of the Republicans, who wanted to kill slavery before they scotched it. This lat the cat out of the bag before the rite time. It aroused and united the South an divided the North.—

They saw what we were after.

They saw what we were after. Eff my policy had been followed, of pacifyin the South and of talkin' Union' to die North, we would have scotched the snake of slavery, and then we could have killed it at our leisure. Then old Welles got up, lookin' very sleepy. He sed "the failure could not be charged against the Navy. It was the most uchieved all the victories. The army couldn't do enything without his gunboats. Every time the rebils got at them, they had to retrete to his gunboats. In his opinion the army had failed because it could not carry his gunboats with it. He sed be at our leisure. ' carry his gunboats with it. He sed he carry his gunboats with it. He sed he had been tryin' to invent a plan to furnish each regiment with a gunboat for land service. Et he could do that, he thought Richmond might be taken early next spring! The only thing in all the war that had not been a failure was his sunbaats!' gunboats!"

After he got thru, Linken called upon me. I jest hauled up my old hickery an laid it on the tabil, and puttin' my elbows on the tabil to rest myself, I began. "Ses I "Kernel, I feel kinder scary to giv my opinion rite here, after sech a display of larnid' an eloquince; but, as I understand the questshin, it is this: We've been fightin to restore the Union, an we've failed! Now, what is the cause of the failure." Ses I, "Is that it, Kernel?"—Ses he, "Les, Major; that's it exactly." "Wal!" ses I, I allers want to get on the track afore I start, and then I kin tell nur-

"Wal, see I, I allers want to get on the track afore I start, and then I kin tell purty nigh when I will fetch up. Now," ses I "Kernel, I want to ask you a question: Did you ever try to split a peperage log." "No," ses he, "Majer, I never did. No body would be sech a consarned fool as to try to split a peperage log." "Wal," ses I, "Kernel, suppose some feller should cum to you an tell you that he had been a year and a half tryin to split a peperage log, and couldn't do it, that he had failed, and wanted you to tell him what to do, what would you say to him?" "Say to him!—why I should tell him he might jest as well whistle at the log as to try to split it; that it wasn't in the natur of such knotty nerly, cross-grained timber to split; in it; that it wasn't in the natur of such knotty nerly, cross-grained timber to split; in other words that, he was tryin' to do an onpossibul thing." "Now" ses I, "Kernel, that's jest my idee about tryin' to save this Union by fightin'! You're tryin' to do an onpossibul thing. After a year an a half of fightin', you all acknowledge that you have failed, all the Cabynet is wonderin' why you have failed. Now, it ain't no wonder to me. You have failed because, in the yery natur of things what because in the very natur of things, what you are tryin' to do can't be done in that only way to get out of this scrape was to have an armistiss, stop the fightin' and go to talkin—that both sides had enulf of bloodshed now to satisfy them, and that he only way to get at a settlement was to

No conclushin, however, was cum to about the armistiss. The Kernel can't bring himself up to the idee yet. Et the Governors were only in favor of it, he would do it at once. So I suppose for the would the translation of the present to shall learn on training to do an present we shall keep on tryin' to do an onpossibal thing—to git the Union by fighting for it. Depend upon it, trying to split peperage logs ain't nothing to it."

SWEETS INFALLEBLE: LIMIMENT is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the great hone setter, and has been used in his practice for the last twenty years with the most astonishing success. As an external remedy it is without a rival and will alleviate bain more speedily than any other preparation. For all Rheumatic and Nervous Directors it is truly infallible, and as a cure for Scree, wormed, Sprains, Bruiges, i.e., its soothing, healing, and powerful strengthening its soothing, healing, and powerful strengthening in properties, excite the just wonder, and astonishment of all who have ever given it a trial. Over four handred certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years, attest this fact.
