

15 N. PARK ROW, NEW YORK... SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 25.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

Pennsylvania Election-Official

Table showing election results for Pennsylvania, including names of candidates and their respective parties.

A Memorable Day

It is called our attention to the fact that Wednesday, Oct. 21, 1862, was a remarkable day in history, as commemorating four important events, viz:

Catholic Theological Seminary

Collections in behalf of this institution were taken up in the different churches of the diocese on Sunday last.

General Negley's Exploit in Tennessee

The Eastern papers are glowing accounts of the capture of 300 rebels at Murfreesboro, Tennessee, on the 17th inst., and of the splendid manner in which Gen. Negley and his command behaved during the engagement and on the march.

Fifteenth Regiment of State Militia

This regiment is now rapidly perfecting its organization and will be paraded in uniform at an early day.

Sons of Temperance

The nineteenth annual session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of this State, commenced on Wednesday, at Franklin Hall, Philadelphia.

Oil Refinery Case

A test case was commenced in the Court of Quarter Sessions yesterday, before Judge Mellon, to determine whether or not oil refineries are a nuisance.

Counterfeiting Case

In the United States Court, Joseph Shoemaker, a tavern-keeper, Johnstown, is on trial for counterfeiting.

An Escaped Murderer

Eli Sheets, convicted of the murder of John Ensey, escaped from Beaver jail, on Wednesday night. A reward of $500 is offered.

New Magic Currency Holder

Send thirty cents in postage stamps and get a magic postage stamp, known as Henry Miner's, Oct. 25th and 26th.

Take Notice

Drafted men whose circumstances will permit them, without sacrifice, to go into service, can be supplied with substitutes. My charges specified. Enquire of J. K. Morange, No. 107, 4th street.

Penalty

Yesterday, in the United States District Court, in the case of Capt. Wm. Reno, without a license, the jury found a verdict for $100, the amount of the penalty under the act of Congress.

The Tax on Coal-Important Decisions

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in answer to certain questions relative to the tax on coal, has submitted the following official communication:

From the Kanawha

The latest advice from the Kanawha is that Col. Leighton's column has been re-occupied the territory late this week.

Church Dedication

We would again remind our readers that the new church, Braddock's Fields, will be dedicated on the 27th inst.

Race

On Thursday afternoon a trotting match took place at Collier's Park, which was largely attended.

Common School Law

We are indebted to the Superintendent of Common School, Hon. H. Barrows, for a copy of a pamphlet containing the laws in relation to our common school system.

Counterfeit

New counterfeit two dollar notes on the Farmers Bank of Bucks County are now well executed, but are exceedingly inferior to the color and greasy condition of the paper.

Thanks

The 1st Virginia regiment, at a meeting held at Wheeling on Monday, passed a resolution expressing their thanks to the people of this republic during their visit here.

Forestalling

Michael Cella, an Italian fruit seller, of this city, was arrested in the Allegheny County Jail, yesterday, for forestalling by purchasing a lot of chestnuts, and fined $5 and costs.

Remains Sent Home

Yesterday morning the body of Walker Huntley, a member of the Anderson Cavalry, reached here from Camp Carlisle, where he died a few days since, and was sent to Conneville, his late residence, by the morning mail train.
