HOUFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. From J. Neiston Brown, D. D., Editor of the En-cyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although north, D. D., Editor of the Encurpoedia (of Retigione Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefithe bolieves himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoof-Innd's (German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, Iam indebted to my friend Robert Eheemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by propercents, and for encouragement to try them, when guifering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was fellowed by syident; relief, and restoration to a degree of codily and mental vigor which I had not left for ix months before, and had almost depaired of reaining; I therefore thank God and my friend for lirecting me to the use of them.
