BIGESON, STEWART & CO. St. Louis, Oct. 28.—The fire on the river yesterday turns out more disastrous than first supposed. The cargo of the H. D. Bacon consisted of 825 bales of hemp, mostly in the hold, where the fire originated, as is supposed, from sparks from a candle which had a few moments previous been blown out by men at work on quitting for dinner. About 25 bales of hemp had been delivered; the balance was destroyed. vesterday much elated over it:
