Parant districtnes in general, through district of their intribulents and effects: I yet know of no ruthicient/reason why a man may not testify to the benefit fing believes himself to have received from any simple proparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced assibst them for unny years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper ests, and for encouragement to try them, when offering from great and long continued debility, he triof three bottles of these Bitters, at the creaming of the present year, was followed by syldent relief, and restoration to a degree of sodily and mental vivor which I had not felt for ix months before, and had almost depaired of relating. I therefore thank God and my friend for firecting ine to the use of them.
