HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Engylopedia of Religious Knowledge.

From J. Nancton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Englishment of Re. 2. SELLERS & CO., Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Redictions in general, through distrust of their ingridients and effects; I yet know of no unflicient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper casts, and for encouragement to try them, when uffering from great and long continued debility. he treof three bottles of these Bitters, at the segiming of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not tolt for ix months before, and had almost depaired of remaining. Dr. Jackson - Drar S. B.:—I have beenfree the requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicine, but exarding the practice as out of my appropriate phere, i have a fall cases declined; but with a siear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own, family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially Liver Complaint it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours very reopectfully,

Be. C. M. Jackson — Sir.—It gave me pleasure, wo years ago, to give you a certificate, testifying nat the German Bitters had done for me. I am ow perfectly cured of all those diseases your redictine professes to cure, viz. Dyspepsia, Chronic and Rervous debility, disease of the Kidneys, to. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above domplaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, and in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above disease. Da. O. M. Jackson—Dear Sir. While in Viril on the change of water, I was taken at the control of the change of water, I was taken and which greatly weakered in. Whom we eached Martinsburg, I feared I should have to ome-home; but noticing some of your Bitters in he store Mr. H. H. Price, in that town, I purhased a supply, and on taking it was speedily restored to health. The diarrhea was quickly shecked, and I experienced no return of it. A number of my comrades, who suffered in the same manner and from the same cause, with whom I shared the Bitters, join me in this certificate. I expect to roturn to the seat of war with the Legon, and shall certainly take a supply of the Bitriamy knapsack. I would not be without it it weight in gold, particularly on going into a mestone region.

When General St. Aubyn returned to his room, at the hotel, he found James Ask-ley pacing the floor with hurried steps.
"Uncle," he said, as the General entered; "I have changed my mind about that far away official post in India. Will you obtain the appointment for me?"
"Certainly; but, James, you would be obliged to sail immediately."
