everal wagons of salt and other contraband articles, proceeding southward from FIFTH ARRIVAL. 1862, 862, -There was very little snow last night, melting as it fell. Weather altarnately OF FALL AND WINTER lear and cloudy.

DRY GOODS. NEW YORK, Nov. 7, 10 p. m.-The brig Anniversary, from Queenstown, arrived this evening. She was in company with the Scotia, off Tom Island, yesterday.— There is little or no abatement in the gale, C. HANSON LOVE & Co's, and the Scotia will probably not arrive up o-night. The bark Mary Baker, of Yarmouth, N. BAR'D COUNTRY FLANNELS, S. reports that on October 30th, in lati-tude 41 deg., and longitude 65 deg. 30 m., she saw two ships, one of which was believed to be the Alabama, which was pe-pursuit of the other and gaining rapidly. The latter was believed to be an American. Blue Country Flannels. They were heading north-east by cast, and GREEN COUNTRY FLANNELS distant 18 or 20 miles. Counterfeit $50 and $100 notes raised GRAY COUNTRY FLANNELS, from $1 and $2 Treasury notes, made their Bleached and Unbleached Canton Flannels

Lon. Simon Cameron is among the passengers in the steamer Scotia. Sr. Louis, November 8 .- We have nothing of special interest from General Schofield's army. The rebels do not appear to have at-C. HÁNSON LOVE & CO. repossess themselves of any part of Mis. 74. Market Street.

They have been pursued into Boston mountains, and will certainly be com-pelled to retreat beyond the Arkansas iver. The rebel column that was to take Pilot Inereoel Column that was to take rhot Knob and Girardeau from the southeast, by way of Pocahontas, have not yet achieved such a result, but on the contrary HOOP SKIRTS, they have been driven below Pocahontas and portions of Gen. Steel's forces are so ALL SIZES FOR LADIES, MISSES disposed at Pittman's Ferry, and other points, that it will be impossible for the enemy to obtain foothold in that quarter. Boston, Nov. 7.-The snow storm with a strong north-east gale, continue CHILDREN, ery severe. The steamers Merrimac and Mississippi JUST RECEIVED AT with three regiments on board, are still below. It is reported that the gunboa. Huron will convey them to Newbern, M'CLELLAND'S AUCTION.
