Supreme Court

Present: Chief Justice, Justices Wood, Strong and Reed.

The remaining cases for Allegheny county were argued yesterday.

The Criminal Court.

In the Court of Quarter Sessions, yesterday morning, the case of the Commonwealth vs. Daniel Boser and John B. Hoyer, indicted for burglary, was called up.

The defendants were arrested on the night of the 26th of October, by the Allegheny police, while attempting to break open and enter the clothing store of Louis Kahl, on the corner of East Common and Ohio streets.

The testimony against them was very strong, and added to this, the men have a bad character, both having served terms in penitentiary.

The jury found a verdict of guilty under the indictment, which was returned by the grand jury.

For attempting burglary, the defendant, Mr. MacKrell, made a motion in arrest of judgment on the ground of defective indictment.

The indictment was returned under the Penal Code, but Mr. M. holds that it should properly have been returned under the common law.

The court has not yet decided upon the point, a rather curious one.

Melancholy Suicide by Landlady.

On Thursday evening Coroner McCune held an inquest upon the body of Mrs. Ellen Moss, a woman about thirty-five years of age and intemperate in her habits.

She was frequently in prison for drunkenness. She lived near the corner of Wood and Sixth streets, with Mrs. Reed.

On Thursday morning, while in a state of intoxication, she procured a quantity of laudanum in a cup, went to Mrs. Reed's and after expressing her intention of destroying herself, ran upstairs, followed by Mrs. Reed, who had been informed of her conduct.

She reached her room when she had swallowed the laudanum. Finding that it was not acting, she called for a physician, and the patient was kept walking until Dr. Spear came, when he pronounced her case hopeless.

She had already taken hold upon the system. The unfortunate woman died in the evening, she leaving two orphan children, her husband having been recently killed in battle.

The jury returned a verdict of "death by suicide."

Export of Petroleum.

From the first of January to the first of November, the exportation of petroleum from Philadelphia amounted to 6,294,419 gallons.

During the same period in 1891 the amount was 6,040 gallons, an increase of 5,925,579.

The exports of crude and refined oil during the first six months of 1892, were 3,379,039 gallons, valued at 109,422 barrels, and valued at $318,390.

Three vessels, of the capacity of 10,000 barrels, are now loading at Philadelphia with petroleum for foreign countries.

The Army Vote in Butler.

A party of the Return Judges of Butler county met on Tuesday last, and after counting the army vote, gave to Mr. Kirkwood, the Republican candidate for District Attorney, a certificate of election.

The Democratic candidate for the same office, who was certified upon county returns. The question will be decided upon the certificates by the local Court.

Piercing Iron Plates.

A Pittsburgh, Mr. J. H. Sweet, writes to the Scientific American that, by instructions of the War Department last spring, he conducted experiments on targets of iron plates four-and-a-half inches thick, backed with eighteen inches of oak timber, and pierced them at every shot, with a four-and-a-half inch Parrott rifled gun, using four pounds powder.

Catholic Mission.

A mission will be opened at St. Paul's Cathedral on Sunday, by the Rev. Father Giessen, assisted by seven Redemptorist Fathers. A mission under the auspices of the same order, was held here some six years ago, and created a great religious awakening.

To Be Argued.

The argument in the matter of the seizure of the City Water Works will be made today in the United States Circuit Court this morning, before Judge Grier.

Boiler Explosion.

On Thursday morning the steam boiler in the grist mill of Mr. Hayden, in Elizabeth, exploded, in consequence of a defect in the iron, but fortunately no one was injured. The mill was started at the usual hour in the morning, and ran about half an hour when the boiler gave way. The loss is about $700.

The Oil Market.

The Vantage Spectator says—Considerable oil is changing hands at the mouth of the Creek. We hear of one sale of 600 barrels at $8, packages included, and sales of smaller lots at prices varying from $2.50 to $3, according to location, packages extra.

Where to Go.

To lady readers inquiring for the best place to replenish their port folios, we say go to Henry Miner's great stationery and book store, 10th Street, where you will find an infinite collection of gilt edged, bordered and tinted, bill and note paper and envelopes to match. The difficulty will not be to find what you want—but to make your selection from the hundreds of varieties you will see. Mr. Miner has a stock of recently purchased at low figures in the East, as well as his own to defy competition in supplying the trade.

National Bank Note Reporter.

Messrs. Field & Lane, the publishers, send us the current number of their National Bank Note Reporter—an invaluable work. It gives a full and complete list of bank notes, the plates for which are constantly being made, and represents the issues of many good banks, which is beyond price of a year's subscription to-morrow.

Bank Stamp Valuers.

Have you got a currency biller. If not you can buy at Miner's.
