HOUFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. From J. Neuton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no infficient reason why a mon may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple proparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoof-land's German Bitters, propared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced gainst them for many years, under the impres-tion that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, I am indepted to my friend Robert Shoemaker.
