

The Union as it was. The Constitution as it is.

LIBERTY AND LOYALTY.

At a period when any man who does not sustain the administration in all the extremes of alternate indolence and fury which have governed its entire course is liable to be charged with "disloyalty" by covert hints or overt accusations, it may be well enough to inquire what "loyalty" means and what "liberty" secures.

HO! THE BATTLE.

"An irreverent rival," a correspondent of the Chicago Times, alluding to the assembling of that patriotic body, known as Congress, greets their arrival in Washington in doubtful and rather equivocal terms.

THE POLICY OF MERCY.

Gen. Wool, in a lengthy communication, vindicated himself from some censurable criticisms, after alluding to the distracted and factional condition of the people of Baltimore.

LIBERTY AND LOYALTY.

We publish the conclusion of a communication in relation to coal diggers' strikes, (too long and verbose for insertion except in reply) to an article on the same subject, signed "A," in the Chronicle last week.

THE VIEWS OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

We have no doubt that the following from the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, is substantially true.

MR. ELIDELL'S INTERVIEW WITH THE EMPEROR.

Some journals have spoken in a triumphant tone of the presentation of Mr. Sidel to the Emperor.

LIQUID TONIC POLISH.

It needs no mixing. It has no small water. It produces no dirt or odor.

WASHINGTON, November 24.—In answer to daily enquiries and informal applications, notice is again given that all applications, made by ladies to go to their friends and families in the South, must be in writing, and verified by oath previous to the 15th day of December next.

First.—Her name, age and residence.

Second.—The date when she came with her family to the United States, and for what purpose, and where she has since resided.

Third.—The place she desires to go to, and the purpose or object.

And the persons to whom leave may be granted, and a suitable certificate from Washington to the line of the United States, with such personal effects as shall be allowed to pass.

Fourth.—The persons to whom leave may be granted, and a suitable certificate from Washington to the line of the United States, with such personal effects as shall be allowed to pass.

Applications are also notified that immediately after the expiration of the time for making applications, a list of the names of those who have been granted leave, and the names of those who have not, will be published, and the time designated. Children, if desired, will be allowed to accompany their mothers and relatives who have permits, and take their usual wearing apparel; but the same and age of each child must be given in the application.

Signed, L. C. TENNER, Maj. Judge Advocate.
