DAILY POST.

Our Army Correspondence. CAMP NEAR WILLIAMSBURG, VA., November 22d, 1862. MR. EDITOR-Dsar Sir:-Having sellom seen anything in the column of your paper regarding the 5th Pennsylvania Cavalry, commanded by Col. David Campbell, of Pittsburgh, and which contains two companies (L and M,) also from Pittsburgh. I take the liberty of addressing you a few lines, regarding their wel-reconnoissancess lately. A few mornings ago, the 5th and 6th squadrons started just before daylight on a reconnoitering expedition, under the command of our worthy Captain, Anderson Faith, of Pittsburgh, then in command of the regiment, in the absence of Col. Campbell. When about one mile outside of Williamsburg, the Richmond road, and the 6th the Centre-stitlen, of Company M; after proceeding about eight miles, to Bushe's Mills, the Heleft Warrenton by the Sperryville turning, and took the road to Salem, where Company M; after proceeding about a mile, we came in sight of the two of the he at once ordered "trot march," and about a mile, we came in sight of the two Lieut. Galliset, of Company L, took company L, took compand the advance guard, After trotting about a mile, we came in sight of the two Lieut. and private of the 15th Virginia Regulation. After coming up to them, the Lieutenant in command crdered them to of which took effect in the knee of Corposhot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at us, one shot, raised his carbine and cheet and fired several shots at the carbine for Culpepper.

He arrived in Warrenton last Thursday. On that day Hampton's Legion, and four previsions coming from Gordonsville for Culpepper.

turned and fired several shots at us, one of which took effect in the knee of Corporal Ford, of Co. L, who, on receiving the shot, raised his carbine and shot the secesh private dead on the spot, whereupon the other gave himself up to Lieutenant Galliset. We then proceeded to what is called the "Burnt Ordinary," about 12 miles from Williamsburg, and, seeing no more of the Confederates, we returned to camp. We have made one another reno more of the Confederates, we returned to camp. We have made one another reconnoisance since, but when within sight of the enemies' pickets, they took to the woods, their horses and equipments falling into our hands. Col. David Campbell, the commander of the regiment and Military Governor of Williamsburg, is a perfect gentleman and an efficient officer; he is well liked by those under his command. Adjutant Wm. G. McCandless, of Pittsburgh, has also gained the good will of all. by the generous and impartial manner, in which he discharges his various duties. which he discharges his various duties.

Many thanks are also due to our able and efficient Quartermaster, Mr. David Bowers, also of Pittsburgh, for the gentlemanly and expeditious manner in which he discharges his duties.

The health and condition of the regions is were good at present and the man ment is very good at present, and the men have got pretty comfortable winter quarters. Hoping these few lines will find room in the columns of your paper, as the numerous friends of the 6th squadron rould like to hear from them. I remain yours, &c. Company Mr. 5th Pa. Cavalry.

THE CHANGE OF COMMAN-DERS. A correspondent remarking on the confusion suddenly occasioned by the removal of Gen. McClellan, remarks: His successor had been appointed, but he felt and confessed himself unable to grasp the situation. Aides-de-Camp came salloping up to what had been headquarganoping up to what had been headquarters, from important points twenty-five miles distant, with dispatches from corps commanders and commanders of divisions.

The official reports from the beginning dispatches of the utmost moment.—

Every movement both of his own army and that of the enemy, has been anticipated and provided for. But, in the be confused and mixed up. The correspondent of the New York Times, a warm admirer of Burnside, says of him, in that paper of yesterday: "This morning early I saw him walking up and down the balcony of the hotel which he makes his headdition, seemingly overwhelmed by the weight of the responsibility resting upon him." No wonder; no wonder. There was only one mind equal to the weight of that awful responsibility. The consequence of all this is, that since last Saturday the whole army has stood still. It is paralyzed, just as a man world he

Your letter of yesterday has been receive of the General Government; they subsist, clothe, arm and equip, them—they have the sole and entire right to grant furloughs and to discipline the men. The State has no authority in the matter what state has no authority in the matter what-ever; the only power given to the Gover-nors of States under General Orders No. 99, from the War Department, is to "de-signate rendezvous," "appoint command-ants," receive reports of the election of officers, and to aminate Provost Mar-shals for the State. When these specific acts are performed, all the newers of the acts are performed, all the pewers of the State Executive cease, and the men are under the control of the United States au-
