Robert Hamilton, a member of Captain Springer's company, Stanton Cavalry, was brought before the came indeed and because the complete of the came indeed and the came indeed day, without any additional cost to our citizens, if they will but take a sufficient interest in its successful termination. We refer to the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, now in the hands of the West-ern Hransportation Company. Work has recently been resumed with vigor on this end of the line. A large force on this end of the line. A large force of workmen is employed on the bridge at Steubenville, along the line of the road on the opposite side of the river, and in building the piers of the bridge over the Monongahela, above this city, upon which the road will come in by way of Try street. The company desire to complete their connection with the Feet permission of the city to enter upon and occupy the streets necessary to the termi-

We publish elsewhere the ordinance introduced in the City Councils last Monday evening showing clearly the route by which the road is to reach its terminus on Liberty street. The company will be under the necessity of purchasing much private property along the very difficult line and encountered in completing this improve-ment, we should he sorry to see any unnecessary delay in granting the right of way. The connection is a very important one to our city and the sooner it is perfected the better for all concerned. The ordinance comes up in the Select Council this evening, when we hope to see it finally acted upon. All admit that the ordinance is a very fair one, in which the city has every possible safeguard, and there can be no reasonable cause for delay in passing it. The people, by this time, fully understand the ments of the case, and we hope

Democratic Club Meeting. The Democrats of the borough of Birmingham, with delegates from East Biamingham and South Pittsburgh, met togeth. er, in pursuance of a call on last Wednesday evening. The meeting was tempora-rily organized by calling Col. Samuel Mc-kee to the chair, after which the report of the committee appointed at a previous meeting was read and unanimously adopted. The meeting then proceeded to elect officers to serve for the ensuing year, with the following result: President, Colonel Samuel McKee; Vice Presidents, Pastor Herrman; James Eckman and John G. Smith; Corresponding Secretaries, Fred. L. Ihmsen and William Fortune; Recording Secretary, George Kuhlman: Treasurer, Charles Deiseroth. Committees on Finance, Vigilance and also a Committee to draft a constitution and by laws were the appointed, after which the meeting adjourned to meet on Chiristmas Eve.

Singular Accident.

On Wedleesday evening a distressing accident occurred to Frank Reel, a deck-House Ripple, opposite Manchester, while engaged with others in attempting to get the boat off the bar. Reel got his left foot inside a coil of rope, which was attached to the shore, at the moment when the current was swinging the stern of the bear to the shore, at the moment when the current was swinging the stern of the boat around; the rope being thus stretched, his station, on the mountain, above Altoona. He was walking on the track, and observ ing between it and the leg.
