FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 5.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE Destructive Fire in Allegheny ---Burning of Irwin & Co.'s "Rope Walk."

Shortly after five o'clock yesterday afternoon, the structure known as the "rope-walk," recently erected by Jno. Irwin & Co, on the bar at the junction of the Allegheny with the Monongahela river, situated in the First Ward, Allegheny, took fire, and was in a little more than an hour, a long heap of ruins. The building was 1200 feet long, about 50 feet wide and four stories high, built of wooden posts, covered with sheet iron, and was raised four stories high, built of wooden posts, covered with sheet iron, and was raised on timbers to prevent injury or interruption by the periodical inundations of the bittom." The origin of the fire is variously stated, but the most reasonable story is that of one of the girls employed in the building, who saw the fire, soon after it caught, falling down the hatchway. She floor, communicating to the hemp, oakum or other inflammable material used in the manufacture of ropes. The building, once on fire, burned very rapidly, and by the time the steamers reached the scene nothing could be done to save it and their efforts were directed to some houses at the upper end and some private residences on the river bank, which were in imminent danger. Happily the fire did not extend beyond the rope walk which fell down as soon as the sup-ports were burned off. The sight was s novel one, the fire presenting the appearance of a burning bridge.

The fire spread so rapidly as to cause the are spread so rapidly as to cause a panic among the employees male and female, all of whom except one, effected their escape safely. One, Miss Susan Cassiday, residing in the vicinity with the family of Mr. Robert Kennedy, jeweler, jumped from an upper window and was severely injured by the concussion. Har severely injured by the concussion. Her hip joint was discolated and she received internal injuries which will, it is feared, result fatally. She is now in a very dangerous condition.

Of dourse none of the machinery and but little of the material in the rope walk (consisting chiefly of oakum, hemp, jute, &c.,) was saved. Among the rope burne was a large quantity of cable, manufac-tured for the government, under contract, by Irwin & Co., for the use of our gun

The loss is heavy, but as we are informed, nearly covered by insurance. The amount is variously estimated, but the following formed and the state of lowing figures will probably be found nearly correct. Building (one of, if not the largest and best, for like purposes, in the country) $6,000; machinery $4,000; material and manufactured ropes $5,000making $15,000 in all. The presumption is that the rope walk will be immediately rebuilt—though there are difficulties concerning the title of the property leased by Messrs. Irwin & Co., which may prevent.

The McClellan Ball. The ball given at Lafayette Hall, on Wednesday evening, by the Young Men's Democratic Club, in honor of General McClellan, was, as it promised to be, a complete success. At least one hundred and fifty couples were present, and all whether dancers or lookers on, seemed to enter thoroughly into the spirit of the ocand the floor was full during the whole night. Supper was served about one o' night. Supper was served about one o'clock, after which Alex. McIlwaine, Esq., delivered a brief eulogy on Gen. McClellan. Mr. James M. Richards, Secretary, then read a letter from Gen. McClellan. regretting his inability to be present, and one from Hon. Richard Vaux, which we have already published. Other responses to invitations were received, but they were not read. After supper the company re-turned to the ball room, and the dancing continued until four o'clock in the morn ing, when all retired, well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The assem-

Boats as they grounded were sunk or run over.

Our informant who came down the creek from the Tarr Farm, counted the wrecks of fifty-six boats from that point to the Oil Creek bridge.— Such a disastrous scene was never before beheld upon the creek.

Upon the pier of McClintock bridge the boats were forced up nearly their full length, by the force of the crush of boats behind them. Upon the pier of the bridge here four boats were sunk, among them one belonging to Benton Bros., of the Benshoof farm, containing 300 barrels of refined oil, valued at $9,000. A great portion of the oil in barrels will be saved. That in bulk will, of course, prove a total loss. From 8,000 to 10,000 barrels were lost in both treahets, worth, at the very least estimate. $10,000 least estimate, $100,000.

Imposters to be Arrested. Capt. Wright, Provost Marshal, has re-ceived a copy of an order requiring him to collect all articles of military clothing, to collect all articles of military clothing, shoes, blankets, overcoats, arms, equipments, &c., which have been issued to soldiers and lost or disposed of by them. Any person not a soldier, in whose possession such articles are found, must prove that they acquired them lawfully. This is a very wholesome order and will have the effect of ridding our city of a number of imposters in military clothes, who, rather than risk an investigation, will divest themselves of the garments they divest themselves of the garments they have no right to wear. Provost Marshal Wright will keep a sharp lookout and will, btless, recover much property other wise lost to the government. Counterfeit Postal Currency. Counterfeit postal currency of the deconnection of fifty cents are in circulation.
