HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Athough not disposed to favor or recommend fatent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects. I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoof-land's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them formany years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture, is am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, and for encouragement to try them, when aftering from great and long continued debility, he used three ibottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of this present year, was followed by sydent relief, and restoration to a degree of the difference of the use of them.

Palladelphia June 2, Eg.

From the Res. Jeeph H. Kennard, Paster of the Dr. Jackson Dr. Bentiet Church.

Dr. Jackson Draz S.E. I have beenfr quently requested to comect my name with com nendations of different kinds of medicine, but examing the practice as out of my appropriate phere, I have reall eases declined; but with a flear proof in various instances, and particularly in my of family of the usefulness of Dr. Hoof-land's German Bitters. I depart from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for smart debility of the usefulness, and especially Live Complaint it is seafs and valuable preparation as some cases it may fall, but usually I doubt not will be very beneficial to those who suffer from Isome cause. Yours very reopectfully.

Eighth below Coats street, Phila., Dec. 24th.

omile Wife of ALDERMANWUNDER, Gor D. O. M. JAUESON - Six- It gave me pleasure, years ago, to give you a certificate, testifyin a the German Bitters had done for me. I am ewperfortly cured of all those diseases your edicine professes to cure, vis. Dynposia, Chronicand Nervous debility, disease of the Ridneys, etc. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown, and is sold in every Drug Store, and in most of the Grocery stores them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in his vicinity more than twenty cases of the above incesses.

Respectfully.

Bespectfully, HANNAH WUNDER, Main street, above Rittenhouse, Germantown

SELECT TALE. AUNT MIRIAM'S ADVENTURE. BY ANY RANDOLPH.

"But, aunty, I am sure you would like her. Come, now, do be reasonable and go over to-night; she is spending a week at her grandfather's, and she would be so much gratified to see you?"

"But, aunty, I am sure you would like turn back with me, you silly boy. Go in and see Milly—I know that's what you prefer. And Jamie'—

"Well, aunty Miriam?"

"Well, aunty Miriam?"

"Well, aunit Miriam?"

"Thank you, I ain't curious on the subject;" responded aunt Miriam, primly.
"Only I heered that Mis' Brownell had a bod stroke of the rheumatiz, and I don't see how she gets along with this new-fangled grand-darter!"

"I can't understand why you are so prejudiced against poor Millicent, aunt Miriam," said the young man, uneasily.
"I wont disguise from you that it makes me

"And yet you're determined to go your James;" said aunt Miriam. "Well, I suppose you can do it without my consent; you'll never get it anyhow!" and she poked the fire vigorously as the old clock began to strike.
"Seven o'clock!" ejaculated James, starting up, "and I promised to be at the post-office by this time. There's to be a meeting about the minister's donation party you know, uncle Peter. Bless me, I did not imagine how late it was." And with a gay parting nod to his aunt, he disappeared.

"There goes as good a boy as ever lived," said uncle Peter, "but, I guess, before the evening is over, he'll contrive to get round to Squire Brownell's. Miriam, you may as well say yes to that affair at once; he's determined to marry that gal—rings, he's determined to marry that gailings, city fashions and all."

"I wish we'd never sent him to college in New York," sighed Mrs. Fenner, "then he wouldn't have come across this city

'Then he'd ha' come come across somebody else; so it's as broad as it is long," remarked uncle Peter, philosopically.
