BURNSIDE'S STATEMENT Continued from Yesterday.

NEW LOAN RECOMMENDED. Latest from Fortress Monroe.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—After the 10th of November the weather and roads were particularly bad. Horses, mules, &c. were sent down to us, so that our cavalry and teams were in very good condition.

After it was ascertained that there must be a delay and that the enemy had concentrated such a large force as to make it very difficult to cross except by a number of bridges, we commenced bringing up from Aquia Creek all the pontoons we could get.

Question—In your judgment could you have crossed the Appomattock river, as you expected, if all possible effort had been made by those charged with that duty?

Answer—Yes, sir. Question—If they had received their pontoons at the time you expected your crossing when you expected to cross and interfere with the success of your plan?

Answer—Yes, sir. Question—If you have assumed command of the army at Fortress Monroe, would you have made any attempt to cross the river, as you expected to do, if you had the pontoons at that time?

Answer—Yes, sir. Question—If you had the pontoons at that time, would you have made any attempt to cross the river, as you expected to do, if you had the pontoons at that time?

LATEST SOUTHERN NEWS.

The Fredericksburg Battle-Array. The War in North Carolina—Shelling James Island—Defeat of Cavalry, &c.

The Battle of Fredericksburg. The body of Gen. Maxcy Gregg, killed at Fredericksburg, arrived in Richmond late on Monday night, and was placed in the office of the Provost Marshal.

The Richmond Dispatch of Wednesday says that at the Fredericksburg depot, a party of about 200 men were seen, several of whom were wounded soldiers.

The Fredericksburg cars, which arrived at nine o'clock yesterday morning, brought with them the remains of our wounded soldiers, and a number of other articles.

The Central train also came in yesterday, and they reported 1,000 of their comrades who had been taken away by the city under guard, exclusive of the wounded Confederates who were expected to be sent to the city on the 27th.

Question—Did you not understand that the reports of the prisoners taken by the city under guard, exclusive of the wounded Confederates who were expected to be sent to the city on the 27th?

Answer—No, sir. Question—Did you not understand that the reports of the prisoners taken by the city under guard, exclusive of the wounded Confederates who were expected to be sent to the city on the 27th?
