by the says: Penneylranians of his brigade who partic-ipated in the late battle at Fredericksburg. It gives me pleasure to say to you that among the distinguished regiments of this old division, in the battle of Fredericks-burg, were the seven from Penneylvania, our patriotic old State. The Fifty seventh, Col. Campbell; Sixty-third, Major Danks; One Hundred and Fith, Col. McKnight; Ninety-ninth, Col. Liedy, were identified with the glory of the command. But the Sixty-eighth, Col. Tippen; One Hundred and Four-teenth, Col. Collis; One Hundred and Forty-first, Coll Midiel, new accessions, did much gallant service; and withstood the enemy's charge with enthusiasm, driving him to his breastworks and cover. It was with piculiar delight, as a Penn-sylvanian, that I led sor many Pennsylvan-nia regiments to the support of the veteran "Bezerves," and as that division was slowly and sullenly retiring before the overpowering foe that we relieved it from the pursuit and repulsed the enemy with terrible slaughter.
