

Y-POST.

The Union as it was. The Constitution as it is.

THE CONVENTION TO-DAY. The Democratic County Convention for the purpose of electing delegates to the next State Convention, will assemble this forenoon at the Court House, at eleven o'clock.

"THE DOG WILL HAVE HIS DAY." Some one in a public speech the other day in New York, alluding to the course likely to be pursued by Governor Seymour, stated that the people would have no more arbitrary arrests.

When the fierce contest of the day had ended, night and darkness prolonged the horrors. The men who were wounded and who were lying on the ground, were being carried to the hospital.

THE ORIGIN OF BANKS' PREDICATION. Our readers remember the vast number of mysterious hints thrown out at the time of the design and direction of the Banks expedition.

THE RISING STORM. The Washington Republican, an organ of Abolitionism, is somewhat exercised over our late defeat at Fredericksburg.

NEW SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR. The Hon. Joseph Holt, Secretary of War, and President Buchanan, has been appointed to the position of Secretary of the Interior.
